Certain Conventions - Use of Market Data

In this Information Memorandum, unless the context otherwise requires or unless stated otherwise, the financial data is derived from our financial statements prepared in accordance with the Companies Act included elsewhere in this Information Memorandum. In this Information Memorandum, any discrepancies in any table between the total and the sums of the amounts mentioned are due to rounding off.

In this Information Memorandum, unless the context otherwise requires, all references to one gender also refers to another gender and the word "lacs" means "one hundred thousand" and the word "million" means "ten lacs" and the word "Crore" means "ten million" and the word billion refers to "Thousand Million". Throughout this information Memorandum, all figures have been expressed in lacs. Unless otherwise stated, all references to "India" contained in this Information Memorandum are to the Republic of India.

Industry data used throughout this Information Memorandum has been obtained from industry publications and other authenticated published data. Industry publications generally state that the information contained in those publications has been obtained from sources believed to be reliable but that their accuracy and completeness are not guaranteed and their reliability cannot be assured. Although we believe that industry data used in this Information Memorandum is reliable, it has not been independently verified by the company. Similarly, internal Company reports, while believed by us to be reliable, have not been verified by any independent sources.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

We have included statements in this Information Memorandum which contain words or phrases such as "aim", "will likely result", "believe", "expect", "will continue", "anticipate", "estimate", "intend", "plan", "seek to", "future", "objective", "project", "will pursue" and similar expressions or variations of such expressions, that are "forward-looking statements". Similarly statements which describe our strategies, objectives, plans or goals are also forward-looking statements.

All forward looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the relevant forward looking statement.

Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations include, among others:

- General economic and business conditions in India and other countries.
- Our ability to successfully implement our strategy, our growth and expansion, our exposure to market risks that have an impact on our business activities or investments.
- The changes in monetary and fiscal policies of India, inflation, deflation, etc
- Turbulence in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, equity prices or other rates or prices.
- The performance of the financial markets in India and globally, changes in domestic and foreign laws, regulations and taxes and changes in competition in our industry.
- Changes in the value of the Rupee and other currencies.
- The occurrence of natural disasters or calamities.
- Change in political and social conditions in India
- The loss or shutdown of operations of our Company at any time due to strike.
- The loss of our key employees and staff.
- Our ability to respond to technological changes.

RISK FACTORS

INTERNAL & EXTERNAL

- The Company operates in Financial Service Sector, which is affected by verity of factors both internally and linked to economic development in India and globally which in turn, also affects global fund flow. Any economic event across the globe can have direct or indirect impact on the company.
- Our business is vulnerable to interest rate risk. Volatility in interest rate may adversely affect our income from operations and adversely affect our financial performance and profitability.
- NBFCs in India are subject to supervision and regulations by the RBI. Any changes in the regulatory framework affecting NBFCs including the provisions for NPA, capital adequacy requirements, applicable tax rates could adversely affect the profitability of our business and our future financial performance.
- The Company is dependent upon the expertise of its promoters and key management for its future performance and the loss of any such person could harm the business.
- Change in Government Policies, Change in interest rates, revision of duty structure, Change in tax laws, change in environmental regulations etc may have an adverse impact on the profitability of our Company. Due to competitive nature of the market, the cost increase due to these changes may not be passed to the customers.
- Terrorist attack or other act of violence of war, including those involving India, United States, united Kingdom or other countries may adversely affect the Indian and worldwide financial market. These acts may result in loss of business confidence and have other business consequences that could adversely affect our business, result of operation and financial condition. Increased volatility in the financial market can have adverse effect on the economies of India and other countries including economic recession.
