- Our business and financial condition may be adversely affected in case of an increase in the level of non-performing assets in our portfolio or RBI mandated provisioning requirements.
- Increased competition from banks, fintech, and other NBFCs may lead to pricing pressure and reduced margins.
- Our success depends significantly on the continued services of our key managerial personnel and our ability to attract, train, and retain qualified professionals with expertise in finance, technology, and risk management.
- Natural disasters, pandemics, geopolitical tensions, or other unforeseen events may disrupt our business continuity and affect our financial results.

Additional factors that could cause actual results, performance or achievements of our Company to differ materially include, but are not limited to, those discussed under the sections “Risk Factors”, “Industry Overview” and “Our Business” and on pages 40, 71 and 95 respectively.

By their nature, market risk disclosures are only estimates and could be materially different from what actually occurs in the future. As a result, actual future gains, losses or impact on net interest income and net income could materially differ from those that have been estimated, expressed or implied by such forward looking statements or other projections.

The forward-looking statements contained in this Preliminary Placement Document are based on the beliefs of the management, as well as the assumptions made by, and information currently available to, the management of our Company. Although our Company believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable at this time, it cannot assure investors that such expectations will prove to be correct. Given these uncertainties, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. In any event, these statements speak only as of the date of this Preliminary Placement Document or the respective dates indicated in this Preliminary Placement Document, and neither our Company nor the Book Running Lead Manager undertakes any obligation to update or revise any of them, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, changes in assumptions or changes in factors affecting these forward-looking statements or otherwise. If any of these risks and uncertainties materialise, or if any of our Company’s underlying assumptions prove to be incorrect, the actual results of operations or financial condition of our Company could differ materially from that described herein as anticipated, believed, estimated or expected. All subsequent forward-looking statements attributable to our Company are expressly qualified in their entirety by reference to these cautionary statements.

ENFORCEMENT OF CIVIL LIABILITIES

Our Company is a public company with limited liability incorporated under the laws of India. All the key managerial personnel of our Company named herein are residents of India and all of the assets of our Company are located in India. As a result, it may be difficult or may not be possible for the prospective investors outside India to affect service of process upon our Company or such persons in India, or to enforce judgments obtained against such parties outside India.

India is not a signatory to any international treaty in relation to the recognition or enforcement of foreign judgments. However, recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13 and Section 44A, respectively, of the Civil Procedure Code (as defined below), on a statutory basis. Section 13 of the Civil Procedure Code provides that a foreign judgment shall be conclusive regarding any matter directly adjudicated upon between the same parties or parties litigating under the same title, except: (i) where the judgment has not been pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction; (ii) where the judgment has not been given on the merits of the case; (iii) where it appears on the face of the proceedings that the judgment is founded on an incorrect view of international law or a refusal to recognise the law of India in cases in which such law is applicable; (iv) where the proceedings in which the judgment was obtained were opposed to natural justice; (v) where the judgment has been obtained by fraud; and (vi) where the judgment sustains a claim founded on a breach of any law then in force in India.

Section 44A of the Civil Procedure Code provides that a foreign judgment rendered by a superior court (within the meaning of that section) in any jurisdiction outside India which the Government has by notification declared to be a reciprocating territory, may be enforced in India by proceedings in execution as if the judgment had been rendered by a district court in India. Under Section 14 of the Civil Procedure Code, a court in India will, upon the production of any document purporting to be a certified copy of a foreign judgment, presume that the foreign judgment was pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the contrary appears on record but such presumption may be displaced by proving want of jurisdiction. However, Section 44A of the Civil Procedure Code is applicable only to monetary decrees not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes or other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine or other penalties and does not include arbitration awards.

Each of the United Kingdom, United Arab Emirates, Singapore and Hong Kong, amongst others has been declared by the Government to be a reciprocating territory for the purposes of Section 44A of the Civil Procedure Code, but the United States of America has not been so declared. A foreign judgment of a court in a jurisdiction which is not a reciprocating territory may be enforced only by a fresh suit upon the judgment and not by proceedings in execution. The suit must be filed in India within three years from the date of the foreign judgment in the same manner as any other suit filed to enforce a civil liability in India. Accordingly, a judgment of a court in the United States may be enforced only by a fresh suit upon the foreign judgment and not by proceedings in execution.

It is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action is brought in India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it views the number of damages awarded as excessive or inconsistent with public policy of India and it is uncertain whether an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments that would contravene or violate Indian law. Further, any judgment or award denominated in a foreign currency would be converted into Indian Rupees on the date of such judgment or award and not on the date of payment. A party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain approval from the RBI to repatriate outside India any amount recovered, and any such amount may be subject to income tax pursuant to execution of such a judgment in accordance with applicable laws.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS

Business Overview

Our Company is a Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) registered with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) as a Non-Systemically Important, Non-Deposit Taking NBFC categorized as an Investment and Credit Company (NBFC-ICC) under Section 45-IA of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934. With a Certificate of Registration bearing number 14.00242, originally issued by the RBI Delhi on March 04, 1998 in the name of Oracle Credit Limited, our Company was subsequently issued a fresh Certificate of Registration on May 30, 2023 in the name of Credent Global Finance Limited, reflecting its new corporate identity. On August 29, 2024 fresh Certificate of Registration bearing number B-13.02494 have been issued by RBI Mumbai consequent to the change of registered office from Delhi to Mumbai. Our Company has steadily evolved over more than three decades into a diversified financial platform that bridges traditional lending with modern investment and advisory services.

A Journey of Transformation

Our story began in 1991 when the Company was incorporated as Overnite Finance Private Limited in New Delhi, a time when India's financial ecosystem was taking its first steps toward liberalization. As the economy opened and access to capital became vital for growth, we identified the need for flexible financing solutions for emerging enterprises. On July 18, 1994, our Company converted into a public limited entity, reflecting its growing scale and ambition and on November 30, 1994, it adopted a new identity as OFL Finanz Limited, reflecting its expanding vision and growing presence in the financial services domain. A year later, the Company underwent another rebranding, changing its name to Oracle Credit Limited on August 11, 1995 symbolizing a renewed focus on credit and financial intermediation. Our shares were subsequently migrated on BSE limited in January 2016, a milestone that marked our transition into a publicly accountable and professionally governed financial institution.

In April 2023, we rebranded ourselves as Credent Global Finance Limited, representing not just a new identity but a new mindset. The new name embodies credibility (“Credent”) and global vision, mirroring our ambition to go beyond being just another NBFC and to become a dynamic, integrated financial enterprise capable of serving modern businesses and investors.

We have three wholly owned subsidiaries, namely Credent Investment Private Limited, Credent Property Advisory Private Limited, and Credent Asset Management Services Private Limited (“CAMS”), which became our wholly owned subsidiaries on March 31, 2022, March 31, 2022, and February 03, 2023, respectively.

Our Philosophy: Finance Beyond Lending

While our foundation lies in lending and investment, we have always believed that finance is more than just providing capital and it's about enabling growth, building relationships, and creating value through insight and innovation. Our Company has therefore evolved from a traditional credit provider into a full-spectrum financial partner offering lending, investment, and advisory solutions tailored for businesses and entrepreneurs navigating India's fast-changing economic landscape.

Our core business revolves around providing structured financing solutions, making strategic investments, and offering specialized advisory services. These include term lending, bridge finance, project funding, investment in listed and unlisted securities, and strategic consultancy in asset management, mergers and acquisitions, and real estate. Over the years, we have also extended our reach to portfolio management, private equity facilitation, and credit realignment services.

Our approach is guided by three key principles prudence, performance, and partnership. We deploy capital selectively and strategically, focusing on sectors with tangible cash flows and scalable business models. Each lending or investment decision is backed by data, market analytics, and risk assessment, ensuring sustainable returns for stakeholders while maintaining asset quality.

Change in Promoter & Strategic Direction

A defining moment in our journey came on February 17, 2021, when Aditya Vikram Kanoria and Mandeep Singh entered into a Share Purchase Agreement with the then promoters, Ashok Kumar Jain and Sughan Chand Jain, to acquire 17,29,650 equity shares constituting 31.16% of the voting capital of the Company. This marked a strategic shift in leadership, bringing in a new vision focused on diversification, modernization, and long-term value creation.

Under the guidance of our new promoters, our Company has taken deliberate steps toward redefining its business model. The emphasis has moved from a purely transactional lending approach to building a holistic financial ecosystem one that integrates credit, investment, and advisory into a single, agile platform. The objective is to serve clients not just as financiers but as partners in progress, helping them unlock opportunities through capital, connections, and counsel.

Our Corporate Structure

Looking Ahead

As India's financial landscape undergoes rapid change driven by digitization, inclusion, and economic expansion, our Company is positioned to play a meaningful role in bridging capital needs across the spectrum. We are focused on expanding our loan book prudently, diversifying our investment portfolio, and strengthening our advisory capabilities to cater to a broader client base.

Our long-term vision is to become a new-age financial services platform that combines traditional NBFC prudence with the dynamism of modern investment banking. We aim to leverage technology, analytics, and strategic partnerships to deliver measurable value not just in returns, but in relationships, trust, and long-term growth.

In essence, our Company represents the evolution of finance from lending to leading. We are not just providers of capital; we are enablers of opportunity, catalysts for enterprise, and partners in sustainable value creation.

Services and Business Model

Our Company operates at the intersection of credit, investment, and advisory offering a unified suite of financial solutions that cater to both enterprises and individuals. What distinguishes us is not merely what we offer, but how we deliver it through a holistic model that combines financial expertise, strategic insight, and long-term partnership thinking.

Our business model is built on three interconnected verticals Lending, Investment & Portfolio Management, and Advisory & Asset Services supported by our wholly-owned subsidiaries that extend our reach into real estate, asset management, and structured investments.

1. Lending and Credit Solutions: Enabling Growth through Capital

At the heart of our business lies our lending platform, designed to address the capital requirements of businesses and individuals seeking flexible, timely, and reliable financing. We provide a range of credit products, including term loans, bridge finance, working capital funding, and structured credit solutions. Our lending philosophy is rooted in prudence focusing on creditworthy sectors, asset-backed exposures, and businesses with tangible growth prospects.

We work closely with mid-market enterprises, MSMEs, and emerging ventures that often fall outside the conventional banking ambit. Each loan proposal is evaluated using a combination of financial data, market assessment, and on-ground insight, ensuring that capital deployment remains both responsible and profitable. Our objective is not only to fund transactions but to fuel transformation enabling clients to expand operations, acquire assets, or unlock new opportunities.

2. Investment and Portfolio Management: Building Long-Term Value

Beyond credit, our Company actively invests in securities, listed and unlisted equities, bonds, mutual fund units, and other financial instruments. This segment is managed through Credent Investment Private Limited, our wholly-owned subsidiary, which focuses on wealth creation through disciplined investment strategies and risk-managed asset allocation.

Through this vertical, we aim to deliver consistent returns across market cycles while identifying strategic investment avenues that align with our long-term vision.

3. Advisory and Asset Services: Bridging Capital and Opportunity

We believe that finance is as much about guidance as it is about funding. Through Credent Asset Management Services Private Limited (CAMS) and Credent Property Advisory Private Limited, we offer end-to-end advisory solutions from financial restructuring and asset management to real-estate consultancy and investment banking support.

Our advisory team assists businesses in navigating complex financial challenges such as mergers & acquisitions, debt syndication, and asset restructuring. In real estate, we provide strategic advice on acquisition, development, and portfolio optimization, catering to developers, institutional investors, and REITs. This vertical reinforces our commitment to being a trusted partner one that helps clients not only access capital but also deploy it effectively to achieve sustainable growth.

4. Integrated Financial Ecosystem: One Platform, Multiple Solutions

Unlike traditional NBFCs that operate within narrow product lines, our Company's strength lies in integration. By combining lending, investment, and advisory under a single umbrella, we offer clients a one-stop financial ecosystem. This structure enables seamless coordination between credit delivery, asset management, and strategic guidance, ensuring that clients receive holistic support rather than fragmented services.

This integrated model also creates diversified revenue streams blending interest income from lending with fee-based income from advisory and investment activities. It enhances our risk profile by reducing dependency on any one segment and allowing cross-leverage between subsidiaries for greater efficiency and scalability.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Equity Shares involves a high degree of risk. Prospective investors should carefully consider all the information in this Preliminary Placement Document, including the risks and uncertainties described below, before evaluating our business and making an investment in the Equity Shares pursuant to the Issue. This section should be read in conjunction with “Industry Overview”, “Our Business” and “Financial Information”, on pages 71, 95 and 149 respectively, before making an investment decision in relation to the Equity Shares.

The risks and uncertainties described in this section are not the only risks that are relevant to us, the Equity Shares or the industry and sector in which we operate. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently believe to be immaterial may also have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. If any of the following risks or other risks that are not currently known or are now deemed immaterial actually occur, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected, the trading price of the Equity Shares could decline, and investors may lose all or part of their investment. The financial and other related implications of risks concerned, wherever quantifiable, have been disclosed in the risk factors described below. However, there are certain risk factors where such implications are not quantifiable, and hence any quantification of the underlying risks has not been disclosed in such risk factors.

In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and our Subsidiaries and the terms of the Issue, including the merits and risks involved. Prospective investors should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences they may encounter from investing in the Equity Shares.

This Preliminary Placement Document contains certain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements because of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Placement Document. For further information, see “Forward-Looking Statements” on page 17.

In this Preliminary Placement Document, unless specified otherwise, any reference to “the Company” or “our Company” refers to Genesys International Corporation Limited, on a standalone basis, and a reference to “we”, “us” or “our” is a reference to our Company together with its Subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, as applicable, as of and for the relevant fiscal year or period.

Internal Risk Factors

- 1. Our Registered Office and Branch Offices are operated on either lease basis or on leave and license basis premises and our inability to renew such lease agreements or leave and license agreements may adversely affect.

Our Registered Office has been taken on a leave and license basis for a period of sixty months, which will expire in April 2029. In addition, our Branch Office in Delhi is occupied on a leave and license arrangement for thirty-six months expiring in February 2028, and our Branch Office in Indore is occupied on a leave and license arrangement for eleven months expiring in February 2026.

In the event that the existing license is terminated or it is not renewed on commercially acceptable terms, we may suffer a disruption in our operations. If alternative premises are not available at the same or similar costs, sizes or locations in a timely manner, our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations may be adversely affected. In addition, the leave and license agreements are required to be duly registered and adequately stamped under Indian law and if our leave and license agreements entered into by us, are not duly registered and adequately stamped, we may face challenges in enforcing them and they may be inadmissible as evidence in a court in India along with the requisite stamp duty prescribed under applicable Indian law being paid.

Any unforeseen complications, such as legal disputes, changes in property ownership, or regulatory hurdles, could adversely affect our ability to secure the property, potentially impacting our planned business activities and expansion strategies.

- 2. We are affected by volatility in interest rates for both our lending and treasury operations, which could cause our interest income and net interest income on loans to vary and consequently affect our profitability.

Our results of operations depend substantially on the level of our interest income on term loans and net interest income as set forth in the table below:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	For Six months ended September 30, 2025	For Six months ended	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023

		September 30, 2024
Interest income on term Loans (total)	377.74	387.87	871.48	581.26	130.15
Finance costs other than interest on lease liabilities	78.64	59.52	146.68	83.74	23.11
Net Interest Income on loans¹	299.1	328.35	724.8	497.52	107.04

¹ Percentages not annualized. They are not comparable with annualized percentages.

1. Net Interest Income on loans represents interest income on term loans minus interest on debt securities, interest on borrowings and other interest expense for the relevant year or period. See "Selected Statistical Information — Reconciliation of GAAP to Non-GAAP Financial Information".

Any change in interest rates would affect our interest income, net interest income on loans and spreads. Any increase in our cost of funds may lead to a reduction in our spreads or require us to increase interest rates on loans disbursed to customers in the future to maintain our spreads.

Interest rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond our control, including the monetary policies of the RBI, deregulation of the financial sector in India, domestic and international economic and political conditions and other factors, which have historically resulted in changes in interest rates in India. Moreover, if there is an increase in the interest rates, we pay on our borrowings that we are unable to pass to our customers, we may find it difficult to compete with our competitors, who may have access to low-cost funds or lower cost deposits. Further, to the extent our borrowings are linked to market interest rates, we may have to pay interest at a higher rate than lenders that borrow only at fixed interest rates. An increase in general interest rates in the economy could also reduce the overall demand for housing finance and impact our growth. In a declining interest rate environment, if our cost of funds does not decline simultaneously or to the same extent as the yield on our interest-earning assets, it could lead to a reduction in our interest income, net interest income on loans and net interest margin. Some of our customers may prepay their loans to take advantage of a declining interest rate environment. Similarly, an increase in interest rates could result in our customers, particularly those with variable interest rate loans, prepaying their loans if less expensive loans are available from other sources.

Fluctuations in interest rates may also adversely affect our treasury operations. In a rising interest rate environment, especially if the rise is sudden or sharp, we could be adversely affected by the decline in the market value of our investments. In addition, while we take steps to minimize the risk of interest rate volatility, we currently do not enter into any specific interest rate hedging instruments to protect against interest rate volatility. Our inability to effectively and efficiently manage interest rate variations and our failure to pass on increased interest rates on our borrowings may cause our interest income and net interest income on loans to decline, which would decrease our return on assets and could adversely affect our business, result of operations and financial condition.

3. We may face asset-liability mismatches, which could affect our liquidity and consequently may adversely affect our operations and profitability.

We face potential liquidity risks because our assets and liabilities mature over different periods. Assets and liability mismatch, which represents a situation when the financial terms of an institution's assets and liabilities do not match, is a key financial parameter for us.

We carefully monitor the behavioural and contractual maturity periods of our assets and liabilities and classify them under their respective maturity buckets based on estimates and assumptions which take into account relevant behavioural pattern as per historical data. Any mismatch in the maturity profile of our assets and liabilities may lead to a liquidity risk and have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

4. Certain unsecured loans availed by our Company are repayable on demand, and any recall of such loans may adversely affect our liquidity, financial flexibility, and business operations.

As on March 31, 2025, our Company has outstanding unsecured loans aggregating to ₹865 lakhs. These loans do not carry any security or collateral and are repayable on demand at the discretion of the respective lenders, which include our Promoters, Director and other related parties. Since these borrowings do not have a fixed repayment schedule or defined tenure, the lenders may recall such loans at any time and require immediate repayment of the outstanding amounts.

If any lender exercises this right and demands repayment, our Company will be required to arrange alternative sources of financing within a limited timeframe. There can be no assurance that such replacement funding will be available to us on terms comparable to our existing arrangements, on commercially reasonable terms, or available at all. Inability to refinance or replace these loans in a timely manner may result in liquidity pressures, disruption of our cash flows, and may constrain our ability to meet operational requirements, debt obligations, or other financial commitments.

Moreover, reliance on unsecured, on-demand borrowings may reduce our financial flexibility and increase our exposure to refinancing risk. Any recall of such loans may also require us to divert internally generated funds earmarked for business expansion, working capital needs or other strategic initiatives, thereby limiting our ability to pursue growth opportunities. In the event we are unable to arrange alternative financing, our ability to support ongoing operations, respond effectively to business or market challenges, or maintain normal course operations may be significantly impaired. Such circumstances could materially and adversely affect our business prospects, financial condition, results of operations and overall stability.

5. As an NBFC, we are exposed to the risk of borrower defaults, and any increase in such defaults may require higher write-offs or provisions, adversely affecting our profitability and asset quality.

Any lending or investment activity undertaken by an NBFC is inherently exposed to credit risk, arising from the possibility of default, delayed repayment or non-payment by borrowers and other counterparties. Our loan book, which stood at ₹5,536.68 lakhs, ₹5,175.31 lakhs and ₹3,176.36 lakhs for FY 2025, FY 2024 and FY 2023 respectively, comprises entirely unsecured loans extended primarily to small business entities (proprietors and partnerships) and individuals by way of personal loans. Such borrower segments may be particularly vulnerable to economic slowdowns, business disruptions, seasonal volatility, liquidity constraints and other external factors that may impair their repayment capacity.

In respect of unsecured loans, our ability to recover outstanding dues is limited, as we do not have the benefit of enforcing any security interest under the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002 (SARFAESI) or any other collateral-related legal remedies. Recovery of such dues is therefore dependent on initiating civil or criminal proceedings, which are subject to inherent uncertainties, including the time required for adjudication, the behaviour, solvency or traceability of borrowers, and the outcome of judicial processes. There can be no assurance regarding the timeliness or effectiveness of such recovery actions, or that such proceedings will result in favourable outcomes.

Further, as an NBFC, we are required to comply with various RBI-mandated norms relating to asset classification, provisioning, income recognition, KYC and borrower due diligence. Any deterioration in the credit quality of our borrowers may require us to recognise higher non-performing assets (NPAs) and make additional provisions, thereby impacting our profitability and capital adequacy. Any deviation from, delay in, or failure to comply with applicable regulatory requirements relating to credit underwriting, monitoring, documentation or classification of assets may expose us to supervisory scrutiny, regulatory action, or penalties.

Our inability to recover amounts due from borrowers in a timely manner or at all, coupled with the absence of collateral support, may affect our liquidity, increase provisioning requirements, impair asset quality, and adversely impact our operations, financial performance and overall business prospects. Any significant increase in delinquencies or credit losses may also attract closer scrutiny from the RBI, thereby heightening regulatory risk for our Company.

6. Our business operates in a highly competitive environment, and failure to remain competitive may have an adverse impact on our operations and financial performance.

We operate across diverse business verticals within the financial services sector and face competition from public sector banks, private sector banks (including foreign banks), financial institutions, captive financing companies, small finance banks and NBFCs. Many of these competitors are larger in size, have greater access to low-cost funds, broader distribution networks, and enjoy long-standing customer relationships. Some of them may also offer a wider range of funding solutions and structured products that we are currently unable to provide, which may affect our ability to retain or expand our customer base.

Competitive intensity in our industry is influenced by evolving regulatory policies, technological advancements, the entry of new players and consolidation among existing financial institutions. These developments may further change competitive dynamics and place additional pressure on our margins and product offerings.

In our advisory and investment banking businesses, we also compete with commercial banks, boutique investment banks, consulting firms and other intermediaries that may have more established credentials, sectoral expertise or global networks. Their ability to offer integrated solutions or price services more aggressively may affect our ability to secure mandates. There can be no assurance that we will be able to respond effectively to competitive pressures, and any failure to do so may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

7. Our ability to access timely and cost-effective capital is critical to our liquidity, profitability and long-term growth, and any disruption in funding sources could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our liquidity and profitability depend significantly on our ability to raise capital in a timely and cost-effective manner, including both debt and equity. As a financial services company, our ability to obtain financing from banks is subject to regulatory restrictions, and foreign investment in our sector is also governed by Indian law, which may limit our ability to attract overseas capital. As we pursue our growth strategy and introduce new products, our long-term capital requirements are expected to increase, and we may become increasingly reliant on borrowings from debt capital markets. The availability and pricing of such funds depend on several external factors, including market liquidity, interest rate conditions, investor sentiment towards NBFCs, and macroeconomic developments in India and global markets.

If we are unable to raise capital on acceptable terms or at costs comparable to or lower than those incurred by our competitors, our ability to offer competitively priced loans and grow our business may be adversely affected. Inadequate or delayed access to funding may restrict our ability to expand our loan book, meet customer demand, manage liquidity, or respond to business challenges. Any such limitations could materially and adversely affect our business prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

8. Underperformance of the investment products we manage may result in reduced investor confidence, investor exits, lower AUM, and could negatively affect our financial performance and reputation.

The investment products for which we provide asset management services may not outperform their respective benchmarks or similar products offered by competitors. Many investments, particularly those involving equity exposure, are subject to market volatility and potential capital losses. While we apply defined investment strategies, the performance of these products is influenced by numerous external factors, including market movements, economic conditions, interest rate fluctuations and geopolitical developments, most of which are beyond our control.

In addition, certain of our investment management contracts impose restrictions on investment policies, such as limits on exposure to specific asset classes, issuers or industries. These constraints may prevent us from pursuing investment strategies that we believe could otherwise enhance returns. As a result, such limitations may adversely impact the performance of the investment products we manage.

Such underperformance may have an adverse effect on our business, including:

- Investor withdrawals: Existing investors may redeem or shift their funds to better-performing products offered by competitors, resulting in a decline in the AUM of schemes managed by us and a corresponding reduction in management fee income.
- Reduced investor inflows: Our ability to attract new investors or secure additional commitments from existing investors may diminish if our investment products do not perform competitively.
- Lower fee income due to market-driven AUM reduction: Negative investment performance reduces the value of the AUM of the schemes we manage, which consequently leads to a reduction in the management fees earned by us.

We may, from time to time, revise our investment management fees or cap total expenses on certain products or services for specified periods to enhance portfolio performance, manage costs, or support the retention and growth of assets under management. However, if such measures result in a reduction in our revenue without a corresponding decrease in our operating expenses, our profit after tax may be adversely affected.

9. An increase in our NPAs or provisioning requirements may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our lending activities expose us to credit risk arising from the potential inability or unwillingness of borrowers to repay their obligations on time or in full. We seek to manage this risk through defined credit policies, underwriting standards, borrower due-diligence, approval processes, portfolio monitoring, and structured collection and recovery mechanisms. However, despite these controls, we may not be able to anticipate adverse macroeconomic conditions, sector-specific downturns, or borrower-level stresses that could lead to higher delinquencies and NPAs.

Any deterioration in the credit quality of our borrowers or an increase in NPAs would require us to make higher loan loss provisions in accordance with applicable RBI regulations. This would reduce our profitability and could constrain our ability to deploy capital towards business growth. Higher NPAs may also adversely affect our liquidity position by slowing down cash inflows and may weaken lender and investor confidence in our asset quality.

In addition, an increase in NPAs or provisioning requirements may result in negative rating actions by credit rating agencies, which could increase our cost of funds or limit our access to diversified funding sources. Adverse rating movements or heightened credit risk may also impact our ability to raise capital on favourable terms, thereby affecting our overall financial flexibility. Consequently, any material increases in our NPAs or provisioning levels may have a significant adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

10. Changes in RBI regulations governing bank financing to NBFCs may restrict our ability to obtain bank funding and adversely affect our liquidity and cost of funds.

Our liquidity and profitability depend significantly on our ability to access funding in a timely manner and at competitive costs. As our business grows, we will continue to rely on a diversified mix of funding sources, and our ability to compete effectively will, in part, depend on maintaining or improving our net interest margins. Our margins are influenced by our ability to secure low-cost funding at rates lower than the rates at which we extend credit to customers.

The Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) has prescribed restrictions on the ability of banks to extend finance to Non-Banking Financial Companies (“NBFCs”) under its Master Circular - Bank Finance to Non-Banking Financial Companies, originally issued on July 1, 2015, and subsequently updated through a consolidated circular effective April 1, 2025. These regulatory provisions restrict the types of activities for which NBFCs, including our Company, may obtain bank financing and impose prudential conditions on the nature, structure and end-use of such funding. As a result, our ability to secure bank funding for certain activities may be constrained.

Under RBI’s regulatory framework, banks are prohibited from providing finance to NBFCs, including us, for the following activities, among others:

- Certain types of bill discounting and rediscounting transactions undertaken by NBFCs;
- Current and long-term investments in shares, debentures and other securities, including investments by NBFCs in their subsidiaries or group companies;
- Loans and advances extended by NBFCs to subsidiaries or group companies;
- Lending by NBFCs to individuals for subscribing to public offerings or purchasing shares in the secondary market;
- Specified categories of unsecured lending by NBFCs;
- Inter-corporate deposits placed by NBFCs;
- Subscription to shares or debentures by NBFCs;
- Bridge loans or interim finance pending capital market borrowings; and
- Use of shares or debentures as collateral for secured loans granted to NBFCs, and issuance of guarantees by banks that indirectly facilitate the placement of deposits with NBFCs.

If we are unable to obtain funds at competitive rates or at costs comparable to or lower than those of our competitors, our net interest margins, income, and overall market position may be adversely impacted. Any sustained increase in funding costs or disruption in funding availability may materially affect our liquidity, financial condition and results of operations.

11. Our Company does not have any registered trademarks and currently uses the trademark or logo of our Material Subsidiary, CAMS, exposing us to risks relating to brand protection, infringement claims and potential loss of brand identity.

As of the date of this Preliminary Placement Document, our Company does not have any registered trademarks. Our Material Subsidiary, CAMS has filed multiple trademark applications for its logo with tagline, out of which certain marks have been registered while others remain pending or are under opposition. The details of such filings are as follows:

Application Number	Trademark	Class	Date of Application	Status
3610882		36	August 11, 2017	Opposed
5605420		36	September 12, 2022	Opposed
5605418		16	September 12, 2022	Opposed
5605422		16	September 12, 2022	Registered
5605424		16	September 12, 2022	Registered

Although CAMS has registered trademarks for some of its marks, CGFL itself has not registered any trademark and currently uses the CAMS logo and tagline as part of its branding. Since the trademark is owned by CAMS and not by our Company, we do not enjoy statutory protection under the Trade Marks Act, 1999 for our own brand identifiers. As a result, our brand name, logo, and other brand elements remain exposed to risks of infringement, imitation, or passing-off by third parties, and we may not be able to initiate or enforce legal action in our own name for trademark violations.

In the event of any conflict with an existing registered mark, we may be required to alter, modify, or discontinue the use of the CAMS logo, tagline, or related brand identifiers. Such a change may adversely affect our brand recognition, stakeholder perception, and may require us to incur significant rebranding costs. Our reliance on a trademark not registered in our name also exposes us to the risk of legal challenges, third-party claims, or disputes over usage rights.

Furthermore, even where CAMS holds registered trademarks, the ability to monitor, detect, and address unauthorized use of such marks may be limited, and enforcement actions may be delayed or ineffective. Our brand identity an important differentiator in a competitive financial services market may also be impacted by adverse publicity, customer complaints, reputational events, or litigation involving either our Company or CAMS. Any damage to or dilution of our brand identity, if not addressed promptly, could adversely affect our business profile, competitive positioning, financial performance, and long-term profitability.

Although, our Company has paid requisite late fees for such filings, no show cause notice in respect of the same has been received by our Company till date. Further, if any such action is initiated by the regulatory authority, then our Company will have to abide by the order of such regulatory authority or pay any penalty that may be imposed by any regulatory authorities in future for non-compliance with provisions of corporate and other law which could impact the financial position of the Company to that extent.

13. Any non-compliance with applicable regulatory requirements as a listed company may result in penalties, increased compliance costs, and may adversely affect our financial condition and reputation.

As a listed company, we are required to comply with an extensive framework of laws, rules and regulations, including the Companies Act, 2013, the SEBI Listing Regulations, the SEBI Takeover Regulations, and other applicable statutory and regulatory provisions. These obligations include periodic and event-based disclosures, timely submission of financial results, maintenance of statutory records, corporate governance compliances and continuous disclosures to the stock exchange.

There has been one instance of non-compliance with Regulation 33 of the SEBI Listing Regulations, relating to the filing of financial results with BSE Limited, arising from a misinterpretation of law by our erstwhile Statutory Auditor. This resulted in the imposition of a penalty of ₹1.25 lakhs by BSE Limited. Further details are provided in the chapter titled “Legal Proceedings” on page 141.

Additionally, SEBI, through its letter dated June 8, 2021 (“Warning Letter”), issued a warning to our Promoter Directors, Aditya Vikram Kanoria and Mandeep Singh, in connection with their acquisition of our Company through an open offer under the SEBI SAST Regulations. In terms of applicable regulations, the acquirers were required to deposit 25% of the consideration payable under the open offer in an escrow account not later than two working days prior to the date of the detailed public statement. An amount of ₹10 lakhs was deposited with a delay of two days. Consequently, SEBI issued the Warning Letter advising the Promoter Directors to exercise greater care in future and directed that the Warning Letter be placed before our Board of Directors.

Any future non-compliance by our Company, our Promoter Directors, or our personnel with applicable regulatory requirements may result in penalties, increased scrutiny, issuance of directions, or other regulatory actions. Such events could adversely affect our reputation, financial condition, results of operations and stakeholder confidence.

14. We propose to utilize the Net Proceeds to augment the capital base of our Company and not for any specified projects.

The Net Proceeds will be utilized towards augmenting our Company’s capital base, in order to meet its future capital requirements, arising out of the growth of its business and assets and to improve its capital adequacy ratio. Consequently, we will not be using Net Proceeds for any specified projects. Further, the fund requirements, the deployment of funds and the intended use of the Net Proceeds as described herein in this Preliminary Placement Document are based on our current business plan, management estimates, prevailing market conditions and other commercial and technical factors, which are subject to change in the future. Such fund requirements and deployment of funds have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution or independent agency or the Book Running Lead Manager, in connection with the Issue. For details, see “Object of the Issue and Use of Proceeds”.

15. Our ability to pay dividends in the future may be affected by our financial performance, regulatory requirements and cash flow position.

The declaration and payment of dividends will depend on a number of factors, including our future earnings, cash flows, financial condition, capital requirements for business growth, asset quality, liquidity position and such other considerations as our Board of Directors may deem appropriate. As a non-banking financial company, we are also subject to regulatory requirements relating to capital adequacy and provisioning, which may limit the amount of profits available for distribution. Any material adverse effect on our profitability, loan portfolio performance, recoveries, or overall financial position may constrain our ability to generate distributable surplus. Additionally, we may choose to retain earnings to support business expansion, meet regulatory obligations or strengthen our balance sheet. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that dividends will be declared or paid in any particular period, or at all.

16. We may not be able to fully comply with insider trading rules and regulations and may fail to detect improper activities in our business operations on a timely basis, thereby affecting our business operations.

We are required to comply with applicable insider trading laws and regulations, including the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations. These laws and regulations require us to establish sound internal control policies and reporting procedures with respect to insider trading. As we experience large volumes of transactions in our securities, the policies and procedures implemented by us may not always comprehensively detect or eliminate instances of insider trading.

Our Company and our Promoters are subject to certain obligations and reporting requirements under SEBI Insider Trading Regulations, SEBI Takeover Regulations and listing agreement such as disclosure of interest or holding by the directors and officers of our Company. Though our Company and our Promoters endeavour to comply with all such obligations/reporting requirements, there have been certain instances of non-compliance of the reporting requirements in the past, where our Company and one of our Promoters were issued advisory letters by SEBI in relation to certain trading activities undertaken by the Promoter and certain designed person(s) identified under the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations.

Any non-compliance with the applicable laws, rules and regulations in the future may subject us to regulatory action, including penalties, suspension of trading of Equity Shares or even compulsory delisting of our Equity Shares, which may not only materially and adversely affect our business, prospects and reputation but also the shareholders.

17. Differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which investors may be more familiar with and may consider material to their assessment of our financial condition.

Our financial statements included in the Preliminary Placement Document and Placement Document are prepared and presented in conformity with Ind AS. Ind AS differs in certain significant respects from IFRS, U.S. GAAP and other accounting principles with which prospective investors may be familiar in other countries. We have not attempted to quantify the impact of U.S. GAAP or IFRS on the financial information included in the Preliminary Placement Document and this Placement Document, nor do we provide for a reconciliation of the financial information included in the Preliminary Placement Document and this Placement Document to those of U.S. GAAP or IFRS. If our financial statements were to be prepared in accordance with such other accounting principles, our results of operations, cash flows and financial position may be substantially different.

Accordingly, the degree to which financial information included in the Preliminary Placement Document and Placement Document will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on investor's familiarity with Indian accounting principles. Prospective investors should review the accounting policies applied in the preparation of our financial statements and consult their own professional advisers for an understanding of the differences between these accounting principles and those with which they may be more familiar. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in the Preliminary Placement Document and this Placement Document should be limited accordingly.

18. As NBFC, we operate in a highly regulated industry and are subject to extensive supervision by the RBI, any adverse action or findings may adversely impact our business.

We operate in a highly regulated industry, and we have to adhere to various laws, rules and regulations. NBFCs in India are subject to strict regulation and supervision by the RBI. We require various approvals, licenses, registrations and permissions for operating our business, including registration with the RBI as a NBFC.

Under Section 45N of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 ("RBI Act"), the RBI is empowered to conduct inspections of our Company to examine the correctness and completeness of any statement, information or particulars furnished by us, or to obtain information that we may have failed to furnish when called upon to do so. Till date, no inspection has been carried out by the RBI in respect of our Company. Any future inspection by the RBI that results in observations, adverse findings, penalties or directives may require corrective actions, impose additional compliance costs, restrict certain business activities or otherwise impact our operations. Any such regulatory action or non-compliance could adversely affect our reputation, business prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

19. Any non-compliance with RBI regulatory norms or adverse changes in such norms may negatively impact our business and financial condition.

As an RBI-registered Non-Deposit Taking, Non-Systemically Important NBFC – Investment and Credit Company ("NBFC-ND-NSI-ICC"), our Company falls under the Base Layer (BL) of the RBI's Scale-Based Regulatory Framework. Consequently, certain prudential norms, exposure limits, governance requirements and periodic filings applicable to higher-layer NBFCs are currently not applicable to us. However, upon crossing thresholds prescribed by the RBI from time to time, our Company may be reclassified as a Systemically Important NBFC or moved into the Middle Layer (ML) or Upper Layer (UL), which would subject us to significantly more stringent regulatory, supervisory and reporting requirements, including tighter exposure norms, enhanced disclosures, periodic stress testing, and additional governance and compliance obligations. Compliance with these enhanced norms may require additional resources, operational changes and higher compliance costs.

As an NBFC, we are required to adhere to individual and group borrower exposure limits, periodic reporting requirements, prudential norms and various regulatory directions issued by the RBI. We are also subject to periodic inspections and supervisory reviews by the RBI. There have been instances in the past where our regulatory submissions to the RBI were delayed. Any failure to comply with applicable regulations, whether due to delay, oversight, interpretational differences or procedural lapses, may result in regulatory action, including fines, penalties, directives restricting certain operations, or, in extreme cases, suspension or cancellation of our NBFC registration. Any such action could adversely impact our liquidity, business continuity, creditability with stakeholders and overall financial performance.

Further, the regulatory framework applicable to NBFCs continues to evolve, and the RBI may introduce more rigorous prudential norms, reporting requirements, governance standards or supervisory controls in the future. Changes in regulations relating to capital adequacy, provisioning, asset classification, exposure limits, interest rate norms, taxation or investment restrictions may require our Company to modify or restructure its operations and may lead to increased costs of compliance. We cannot assure you that such changes will not adversely affect our business operations, financial condition, cash flows or prospects.

Additionally, the financial services sector in India is subject to multiple laws, regulations, circulars and guidelines that may be subject to differing interpretations. If regulatory authorities adopt an interpretation of any requirement that differs from ours, or if new regulatory expectations arise, our Company may be exposed to penalties, regulatory scrutiny or restrictions. Changes in accounting standards, reporting formats or regulatory interpretations could also impact our results of operations and financial reporting.

Any such non-compliance, regulatory action, or adverse change in the regulatory environment may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, prospects and the trading price of our Equity Shares.

20. Our business is subject to obtaining, maintaining, and renewing various statutory approvals, licenses, registrations, and permits, and any failure or delay in obtaining or renewing the same may adversely affect our operations.

We are required to obtain and maintain multiple approvals, licences, registrations, permits, and no-objection certificates in the ordinary course of our business under applicable laws and regulations. Certain of these approvals are required to be renewed from time to time, and we are required to make applications for such renewals within the prescribed timelines and in compliance with applicable conditions.

Any failure or delay in applying for or obtaining the renewal of approvals that expire, or in obtaining or maintaining required approvals, licences, registrations, or permits, or any suspension, cancellation, or revocation thereof, may disrupt or delay our business operations and could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and future prospects.

We cannot assure that the approvals, licenses, registrations, and permits issued to us will not be suspended, cancelled, or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with applicable laws, regulatory requirements, or the terms and conditions of such approvals, or pursuant to any regulatory or governmental action. Any such suspension, cancellation, or revocation may require us to cease or modify certain operations, incur additional costs, or result in penalties, which could materially and adversely impact our business and results of operations.

21. Any failure of our internal controls over financial reporting may cause adverse unexpected operating results, affect our reported results of operations or otherwise harm our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of our financial statements and the preparation of financial information for external reporting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. However, due to inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect all misstatements, errors, or instances of fraud.

Our future growth, including expansion of operations and any acquisitions or integration of businesses with internal control systems, accounting policies, or procedures that differ from our own, may place additional strain on our internal control framework. Any inability to design, implement, or maintain adequate internal controls over financial reporting could impair our ability to accurately and timely report our financial results or detect and prevent financial irregularities.

A failure to maintain effective internal control over financial reporting, including the occurrence of a material weakness or significant deficiency, could result in restatement of financial statements, regulatory scrutiny, loss of investor confidence, decline in the market price of our Equity Shares, increased compliance and audit costs, litigation exposure, or adverse publicity, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations, and future prospects.

While we have not identified any material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in our internal control over financial reporting during the six months period ended September 30, 2025, or during Fiscal 2025, Fiscal 2024, and Fiscal 2023, there can be no assurance that such weaknesses or deficiencies will not arise in the future.

22. This Preliminary Placement Document includes certain unaudited financial results, which has been subjected to limited review, in relation to our Company. Reliance on such information should, accordingly, be limited.

This Preliminary Placement Document includes certain unaudited financial results of our Company for Six months ended September 30, 2025, compiled by the Company in the manner and format required by the SEBI Listing Regulations and in respect of which the Statutory Auditors of our Company have issued their limited review report thereon. As this financial information has been subject only to limited review as required under Regulations 33 and 52(2) of SEBI Listing Regulations and as described in Standard on Review Engagements (SRE) 2410, “Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity” issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, and not to an audit, any reliance by prospective investors to the Issue on such financial information for Six months ended September 30, 2025 should be limited. Accordingly, prospective investors should rely on them independent examination of our financial position and results of operations, and should not place undue reliance on, or base their investment decision solely on the financial information included in this Preliminary Placement Document.

23. Our business is substantially dependent on the experience, expertise, and continued involvement of our Promoters, and any loss of their services could adversely affect our operations.

Our business operations and strategic direction are significantly dependent on the experience, vision, and continued involvement of our Promoters. The Promoters play a critical role in setting our business strategy, overseeing operations, managing key stakeholder relationships, and ensuring compliance with regulatory and risk management frameworks. Their industry knowledge and leadership have been instrumental in the development and growth of our business.

Any loss of the services of our Promoters, whether due to resignation, incapacity, or any other reason, or any reduction in their level of involvement in the management of our business, could disrupt our operations and adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategies. We cannot assure that suitable replacements with comparable expertise and experience would be available on commercially reasonable terms or at all. Any such loss could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and future prospects.

24. Our ability to operate and grow our business depends on our Key Management Personnel, and our inability to attract or retain such personnel could adversely affect our performance.

Our continued success also depends on the skills, experience, and continued services of our Key Management Personnel, who are responsible for managing our day-to-day operations, financial management, risk assessment, credit appraisal, asset valuation, and compliance functions. The loss of services of one or more of our Key Management Personnel, or our inability to attract and retain qualified individuals in these roles, could adversely affect our operational efficiency and internal control environment.

Further, our growth plans require us to recruit, train, and integrate new employees, and to provide ongoing training to existing personnel to ensure adherence to internal policies, risk management systems, and regulatory requirements. Competition for qualified professionals in the financial services sector is intense, and we may face higher attrition or increased recruitment and training costs. Any failure to effectively manage our human resources could result in operational disruptions, deterioration in service quality, increased exposure to credit or compliance risks, and diversion of management resources, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and the market price of our Equity Shares. We may need to offer attractive compensation and other benefits packages, including share-based compensation, to attract and retain them. The following table provides our employee benefits expense and as a percentage of total expenses for the periods indicated:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	Six months ended September 30, 2025		Fiscals

We may experience negative cash flows in the future which may have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. For further details please refer to “Financial Information” on page 149.

26. Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on management estimates and have not been independently appraised and may be subject to change based on various factors, some of which are beyond our control.

Our funding requirements and the proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds have been determined by our management based on internal assessments, current business plans, and prevailing market conditions. These estimates have not been appraised or verified by any bank, financial institution, or other independent agency. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that such estimates will not vary due to changes in market conditions, business requirements, cost assumptions, regulatory developments, or other factors, some of which may be beyond our control.

In the absence of an independent appraisal, any variation in our funding requirements or changes in the underlying assumptions may require us to revise the proposed utilization of the Net Proceeds. Any such deviation from the proposed deployment may impact the implementation timelines of our business plans or the expected benefits therefrom, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and future prospects. For details, see “Use of Proceeds” on page 63.

27. Misconduct or errors by manpower engaged by us could expose us to business risks or losses that could adversely affect our business prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

Misconduct or errors by manpower engaged by us could expose us to business risks or losses, including regulatory sanctions, penalties and serious harm to our reputation. Such misconduct includes breach of security requirements, misappropriation of funds, hiding unauthorized activities, failure to observe our stringent operational standards and processes and improper use of confidential information. It is not always possible to detect or deter such misconduct, and the precautions we take to prevent and detect such misconduct may not be effective. Consequently, our ability to control the workplace environment in such circumstances is limited. The risks associated with the deployment of manpower engaged by us across locations include, among others, possible claims relating to; actions or inactions, including matters for which we may have to indemnify our clients; our failure to adequately verify personnel backgrounds and qualifications resulting in deficient services; failure of manpower engaged by us to adequately perform their duties; errors or malicious acts or violation of health and safety regulations; or criminal acts.

These claims may give rise to litigation and claims for damages, which could be time-consuming. These claims may also result in negative publicity and adversely impact our reputation and brand name. Further, we may be forced to indemnify our clients against losses or damages suffered by our clients as a result of negligent acts of manpower engaged by us. We may also be affected in our operations by the acts of third parties, including sub-contractors and service providers. Any claims and proceedings for alleged negligence as well as regulatory actions may in turn materially and adversely affect our brand and our reputation, and consequently, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

28. Our future growth and competitive position depend on our ability to build and maintain brand recognition, and any failure to do so could adversely affect our business.

Our ability to grow our business and compete effectively in the industry depends, in part, on our ability to establish, promote, and maintain the recognition and reputation of our brand, “Credent Global Finance” Building brand awareness and trust among customers, counterparties, and other stakeholders is critical to achieving wider acceptance of our services and sustaining long-term growth.

Our efforts to strengthen and position our brand are dependent on the effectiveness of our marketing strategies, customer engagement initiatives, and our ability to consistently deliver high-quality services. There can be no assurance that the brand-building and promotional activities undertaken by us will result in increased customer acquisition, retention, or revenues. Even where such efforts generate incremental revenues, such revenues may not be sufficient to offset the costs incurred in building and maintaining our brand.

If we are unable to successfully promote, protect, or enhance our brand image and market presence, or if our brand reputation is adversely affected for any reason, we may face reduced demand for our services, loss of competitive advantage, and diminished market position, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and future prospects.

29. Any future issuance of Equity Shares or sale of a substantial number of Equity Shares by our significant shareholders may dilute existing shareholding and adversely affect the market price of our Equity Shares.

Any future issuance of Equity Shares, including pursuant to further capital raising, preferential allotments, employee stock option plans, or other equity-linked instruments, may result in dilution of the shareholding of existing equity shareholders. Such dilution could adversely affect the market price of our Equity Shares and the return on investment for existing shareholders.

Further, any sale or potential sale of a substantial number of Equity Shares by our promoters or other significant shareholders in the public market could adversely impact the market price of our Equity Shares. The perception in the market that such sales may occur, even if no such sale actually takes place, could also result in volatility or a decline in the trading price of our Equity Shares.

Accordingly, investors may experience dilution of their shareholding or a decline in the market value of their investment as a result of future equity issuances or secondary sales by significant shareholders, which could materially and adversely affect investor returns.

30. We are subject to cyber security risks and security breaches and may incur increasing costs in an effort to minimize those risks and to respond to cyber incidents.

We rely extensively on information technology systems, digital platforms, and third-party service providers for the conduct of its operations, processing of transactions, storage of data, and delivery of services to customers. As a result, we are exposed to risks associated with cyber security incidents, data breaches, system failures, malware, ransomware, phishing attacks, and other forms of unauthorized access or misuse of our information technology infrastructure.

Cyber-attacks may be targeted at us, our customers, or our counterparties, and may be intentional or opportunistic in nature. Although we devote significant resources to maintain and regularly upgrade our systems and processes that are designed to protect the security of our computer systems, software, networks and other technology assets and the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information belonging to us and our customers, our security measures may not provide absolute security. Despite our efforts to ensure the integrity of our systems, it is possible that we may not be able to anticipate or to implement effective preventive measures against all security breaches of these types, especially because the techniques used change frequently or are not recognized until launched, and because cyber-attacks can originate from a wide variety of sources, including third parties outside the Company such as persons who are involved with organized crime or associated with external service providers or who may be linked to terrorist organizations or hostile foreign governments.

A successful penetration or circumvention of the security of our systems could cause serious negative consequences, including significant disruption of our operations, misappropriation of our confidential information or that of our customers, or damage to our computers or systems or those of our customers and counterparties, and could result in violations of applicable privacy and other laws, financial loss to us or to our customers, loss of confidence in our security measures, customer dissatisfaction, significant litigation exposure, and affect to our reputation, all of which could have a material adverse effect on us.

Our servers are also vulnerable to computer viruses, physical or electronic break-ins, and similar disruptions. We may need to expend significant resources to protect against security breaches or to address problems caused by breaches. Security breaches, including any breach of our systems or by persons with whom we have commercial relationships that result in the unauthorized release of customers' or businesses' personal information, could damage our reputation and expose us to a risk of loss or litigation and possible liability.

31. Any breach of security or unauthorized access to customers' confidential information could harm our reputation and expose us to significant liability.

In the ordinary course of our business, we collect, process, and store sensitive and confidential information of our customers, including bank account details, credit-related information, and other personal and financial data. Any accidental, unauthorized, or intentional breach of our information security systems, or any unauthorized access to such data, could result in theft, misuse, or criminal exploitation of customer information.

Security breaches may occur as a result of third-party actions, employee error or misconduct, system vulnerabilities, design or coding flaws in our software, or failures in our internal controls. In the event that our security measures are compromised and a third party gains unauthorized access to customer data, our relationships with customers could be significantly impaired, and we may be exposed to claims, regulatory action, litigation, penalties, or compensation liabilities, in addition to adverse publicity.

Further, we engage certain third-party service providers for various aspects of our operations, which may require them to have access to customer or business data. While our contractual arrangements with such third parties include restrictions on the use of customer data and require implementation of data protection safeguards, there can be no assurance that such service providers will comply with these contractual obligations or that such arrangements will be sufficient to prevent data breaches or be fully compliant with applicable data protection and privacy laws. Any failure or perceived failure to protect customer information, whether attributable to us or our third-party service providers, could materially and adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition, and results of operations.

32. We rely on the accuracy and completeness of information concerning borrowers and counterparties for credit evaluation and risk management. Any misrepresentation, inaccuracies, or omissions in such material could have a negative impact on our business and financial results.

We rely on information provided to us by or on behalf of borrowers when evaluating whether to provide credit or engage in other transactions with clients (including in relation to their financial transactions and past credit history). We may also depend on borrowers' assurances about the accuracy and completeness of the information. For ascertaining the creditworthiness and encumbrances on collateral, we may depend on the respective registrars and sub-registrars of assurances, credit information companies or credit bureaus and on independent valuers in relation to the value of the collateral, and our reliance on any misleading information given may affect our judgment of credit worthiness of potential borrowers, and the value of and title to the collateral, which may affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. We may receive inaccurate or incomplete information as a result of negligence or fraudulent misrepresentation on the part of our customers or employees. In addition, customers may misrepresent information in the loan application forms including in relation to the intended end use of the loans and may apply the loans disbursed for end uses different from those mentioned in the loan application form. Our risk management measures may not be adequate to prevent or deter such activities in all cases, which may adversely affect our business prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

There may be relatively less financial and credit information available on retail and rural individual borrowers, micro, small and medium enterprises and in relation to the possibility of double-financing obtained by any such clients, than may have been available in a more developed economy, and the availability of such financial and credit information in India may be considered to suffer from an absence of competitive pressure at present.

33. Our inability to effectively detect, prevent, or timely identify money laundering, fraud, or other illicit activities may expose us to regulatory action and adversely affect our business and reputation.

We are subject to applicable anti-money laundering ("AML") and know your customer ("KYC") laws, rules, and regulations in India. In the ordinary course of our business, we are exposed to the risk of fraud, money laundering, and other unlawful activities by customers or counterparties, and we are required to implement and maintain effective systems, policies, and controls to ensure compliance with applicable AML and KYC requirements.

While we have established internal policies, procedures, and control mechanisms designed to identify, monitor, and mitigate risks relating to money laundering and other illicit activities, such measures may not be fully effective in detecting or preventing all instances of actual or attempted violations. Limitations in our systems, human error, circumvention of controls, or the use of increasingly sophisticated methods by third parties may result in delayed detection or failure to identify such activities.

Any failure or perceived inadequacy of our AML and KYC compliance framework to timely or effectively detect, prevent, or report money laundering, fraud, or other illicit activities could subject us to regulatory investigations, enforcement actions, fines, penalties, or other sanctions, and could also result in reputational harm, loss of customer confidence, increased compliance costs, or restrictions on our business activities, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and future prospects.

34. As we expand our lending operations, asset–liability mismatches may adversely affect our liquidity and financial performance.

Our business involves extending loans with defined repayment tenures, while its funding is primarily dependent on borrowings and credit facilities with varying maturity profiles. As our loan portfolio grows, any inability to align the maturity of our assets with our liabilities may result in asset–liability mismatches.

If we are unable to raise additional borrowings or renew existing credit facilities on a timely basis, on acceptable terms, or with tenures that match our loan portfolio, we may face liquidity constraints, refinancing risks, or increased borrowing costs. Adverse market conditions or changes in lender sentiment may further impact our access to funding.

Any material asset–liability mismatch could strain our cash flows, affect our ability to meet repayment obligations, pressure profitability, or limit further lending activities, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

35. Our inability to keep pace with technological developments, changing customer preferences, and evolving regulatory requirements may adversely affect our business.

Our business relies on technology-enabled platforms to deliver financial products and services. Rapid technological advancements, evolving customer preferences, cyber security risks, system performance issues, and changes in regulations governing digital financial services require continuous adaptation.

If we are unable to upgrade our systems, respond to regulatory changes, or align our products with shifting customer demand, our services may become less competitive or accessible. Additionally, reduced demand for credit due to regulatory restrictions, increased savings behaviour, or availability of alternative products could adversely impact our revenues and profitability.

Any such failure to adapt could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

36. We have not commissioned an industry report for the disclosures made in the section titled “Industry Overview” and made disclosures based on the data available on the internet and such third-party data has not been independently verified by us.

We have not commissioned any independent industry report for the disclosures made in the section titled “Industry Overview” on page 71. The industry-related information contained therein has been derived from publicly available third-party sources and information available on the internet. We have neither independently verified such information nor sought consent from the respective third-party sources for the inclusion of such data in this Preliminary Placement Document.

Accordingly, we do not represent that the industry data, assumptions, estimates, or forecasts contained in the Industry Overview section are accurate, complete, or current, and such information may be subject to change due to factors beyond our control. Our actual market position, performance, and prospects may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such industry-related information.

Further, the industry data and sources referred to in this Preliminary Placement Document are not intended to be, and should not be construed as, recommendations to invest in our Company. Investors are advised to read and consider the industry-related disclosures in this Preliminary Placement Document in this context and to conduct their own independent evaluation before making any investment decision.

37. Our Promoter, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel have interests in our Company other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits.

Our Promoter, Directors and Key Managerial Personnel, may be deemed to be interested in our Company, in addition to the regular remuneration or benefits, reimbursements of expenses, Equity Shares held by them or their relatives, their dividend or bonus entitlement, benefits arising from their directorship in our Company. For further details please refer to “Financial Information” on page 149.

38. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants in our financing arrangements.

Our Company declared an interim dividend of 5%, being ₹0.50/- per Equity Share of face value ₹10/- each, to the non-promoter equity shareholders for the financial year 2022–23, aggregating to ₹18.89 lakhs. The promoters of our Company, namely Aditya Vikram Kanoria and Mandeep Singh, voluntarily waived their entitlement to dividend on their shareholding of 31,99,549 Equity Shares for the said financial year. There can be no assurance that such dividend payments or waivers will be repeated in the future.

The declaration and payment of dividends in future will depend on several factors, including but not limited to our profit after tax for the relevant financial year, allocation of profits to reserves, our expansion and capital expenditure plans, working capital requirements, financial condition, liquidity position, cash flows, and applicable statutory and tax considerations. Any decision relating to declaration of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and subject to applicable approvals, including those of shareholders, and compliance with applicable laws.

We may, in the future, decide to retain a significant portion or all of our earnings to fund business development, expansion, or other capital requirements, and accordingly may not declare or pay dividends on our Equity Shares. Further, dividends distributed by us are subject to applicable taxes, including dividend distribution-related tax obligations, at rates prescribed under applicable laws from time to time, which may impact the net returns to shareholders.

There can be no assurance that we will generate sufficient profits or cash flows to meet our operating expenses and declare dividends. Accordingly, investors should not rely on past dividend declarations as an indication of our future dividend policy, and we cannot assure that dividends will be declared or paid in the near, medium, or long term.

39. Investors will be subject to market risks until the Equity Shares credited to the investor's demat account are listed and permitted to trade.

Investors can start trading the Equity Shares allotted to them only after they have been credited to an investor's demat account, are listed and permitted to trade. In accordance with Indian law and practice, final approval for listing and trading of our Equity Shares will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Such approval will require the submission of all other relevant documents authorizing the issuance of the Equity Shares. Accordingly, there could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on BSE, which would adversely affect your ability to sell the Equity Shares. Since the Equity Shares are currently traded on the BSE, investors will be subject to market risk from the date they pay for the Equity Shares to the date when trading approval is granted for the same. Furthermore, there can be no assurance that the Equity Shares allocated to an investor will be credited to the investor's demat account in a timely manner or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner.

40. The trading volume and market price of the Equity Shares may be volatile following the Issue, and you may not be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

The market price of the Equity Shares may fluctuate as a result of, among other things, the following factors, some of which are beyond our control:

- actual or anticipated variations in our results of operations, including compared to expectations of securities analysts and investors and those of our competitors;
- changes in expectations as to our future financial performance, including financial estimates by analysts and investors;
- announcements about our earnings that are not in line with analyst expectations;
- announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint operations or capital commitments;
- announcements by third parties or governmental entities of significant claims or proceedings against us;
- new laws and governmental regulations applicable to our industry;
- changes in our shareholder base;
- changes in our dividend policy;
- changes in accounting standards, policies, guidance, interpretations or principles;
- the public's reaction to our press releases, other public announcements, and filings with the regulator;

- adverse media reports about us or our industry;
- changes / volatility in exchange rates;
- changes in the regulatory and legal environment in which we operate;
- fluctuations in stock market prices and volume; and
- general economic and stock market conditions.

Any of these factors listed above could result in large and sudden changes in the volume and trading price of the Equity Shares and adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares. The market price of the Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Issue and may decline below the Issue Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price. Furthermore, the Issue Price which may include a discount of not more than 5% on the Floor Price in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, which will be determined by our Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager, may not be necessarily indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after this Issue is complete.

41. An investor will not be able to sell any of the Equity Shares subscribed in the Issue other than on a recognized Indian stock exchange for a period of one year from the date of allotment of such Equity Shares.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, for a period of one year from the date of the allotment of the Equity Shares in the Issue, investors subscribing the Equity Shares in the Issue may only sell such Equity Shares on BSE and may not enter into any off-market trading in respect of such Equity Shares. We cannot be certain that these restrictions will not have an impact on the price of the Equity Shares. This may affect the liquidity of the Equity Shares subscribed by investors and it is uncertain whether these restrictions will adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares subscribed by investors.

42. Applicants to the Issue are not allowed to withdraw or revise downwards their Bids after the Issue Closing Date.

In terms of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, applicants in the Issue are not allowed to withdraw their Bids after the Issue Closing Date. The Allotment of Equity Shares in this Issue and the credit of such Equity Shares to the applicant's demat account with depository participant could take approximately seven days and up to 10 days from the Issue Closing Date. However, there is no assurance that material adverse changes in the international or national monetary, financial, political or economic conditions or other events in the nature of force majeure, material adverse changes in the business, results of operations and financial condition of our Company, or other events affecting the applicant's decision to invest in the Equity Shares, would not arise between the Issue Closing Date and the date of Allotment of Equity Shares in the Issue. Occurrence of any such events after the Issue Closing Date could also impact the market price of the Equity Shares. The applicants shall not have the right to withdraw their Bids in the event of any such occurrence. Our Company may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events may limit the applicants' ability to sell the Equity Shares after the Issue or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline.

43. Our Equity Shares are quoted in Indian Rupees in India and investors may be subject to potential losses arising out of exchange rate risk on the Indian Rupee and risks associated with the conversion of Indian Rupee proceeds into foreign currency.

Investors are subject to currency fluctuation risk and convertibility risk since our Equity Shares are quoted in Indian Rupees on the Indian stock exchanges on which they are listed. Dividends on the Equity Shares will also be paid in Indian Rupees and subsequently may need to be converted into the relevant foreign currency for repatriation. Any adverse movement in exchange rates during the time it takes to undertake such conversion may reduce the net dividend to investors. In addition, foreign investors that seek to sell Equity Shares will have to obtain approval from the RBI, unless the sale is made on a stock exchange or in connection with an offer made under regulations regarding takeovers. Any adverse movement in exchange rates during a delay in repatriating the proceeds from a sale of Equity Shares outside India, for example, because of a delay in regulatory approvals that may be required for the sale of Equity Shares, may reduce the net proceeds received by shareholders. The volatility of the Indian Rupee against other currencies may subject investors who convert funds into Indian Rupees to purchase our Equity Shares to currency fluctuation risks.

External Risk Factors

44. The occurrence of natural or man-made disasters, terrorist attacks, civil unrest or rioting in India and other acts of violence or war could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows and could create a perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk, thereby adversely affecting the market price of the Equity Shares.

The occurrence of natural disasters, including cyclones, storms, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, fires, explosions, pandemics (such as COVID-19) and epidemics, and man-made disasters, including acts of terrorism, other acts of violence and war, could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. In addition, terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war as well as civil unrest or rioting in India could create a perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk, thereby adversely affecting the market price of the Equity Shares. The Indian stock market may experience significant volatility, influenced by macroeconomic indicators, global developments, RBI policies, and news flow in general. Investor behaviour, which involves buying during price drops and selling to lock in profits during price increases, can exacerbate this perception. Additionally, global tensions such as the ongoing Russo Ukrainian conflict and disturbances in the middle east along with other economic uncertainties may contribute to heightened volatility and the impression of increased market risk.

45. Political instability or changes in the Government could adversely affect economic conditions in India and by consequence, our business.

Political instability or changes in government can significantly impact India's economic conditions in several ways:

- Investment Climate: Uncertainty about the political future can deter both domestic and foreign investors. Businesses may delay or cancel investments due to concerns over policy changes, regulatory shifts, or potential disruptions in governance. This can slow down economic growth and development.
- Policy Continuity: Frequent changes in government or political instability can lead to inconsistent or unpredictable economic policies. This lack of continuity can affect long-term planning and decision-making for businesses and investors, leading to decreased economic confidence and slower economic activity.
- Economic Reforms: Political instability might hinder the implementation of crucial economic reforms. Reform agendas may be stalled or reversed due to shifting political priorities, affecting the overall economic development and competitiveness of the country.
- Market Sentiment: Political uncertainty can lead to volatile financial markets. Investors may react negatively to political turmoil, causing fluctuations in stock prices, currency value, and bond yields. This volatility can further impact economic stability and investor confidence.
- Public Spending: Political instability can disrupt government spending and fiscal policies. Budget approvals might be delayed, or spending priorities might shift, affecting public infrastructure projects, social programs, and overall economic activity.

Consequently, the NBFC sector, heavily reliant on economic stability for asset quality, loan demand, and credit risk management, may face increased non-performing assets, reduced profitability, and heightened operational challenges, thereby affecting its overall business performance and stability.

46. A downgrade in ratings of India, may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

India's sovereign debt rating could be downgraded due to several factors, including changes in tax or fiscal policy or a decline in India's foreign exchange reserves, all which are outside the control of our Company. Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional external financing, and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available. Our borrowing costs and our access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on the credit ratings of India. India's sovereign rating was BBB by DBRS as of May 8, 2025, BBB by S&P Global as of August 14, 2025, BBB- by Fitch as of September 15, 2025 and Baa3 with a "stable" outlook by Moody's as of October 2, 2025. Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such financing is available, including raising any overseas additional financing. A downgrading of India's credit ratings may occur, for example, upon a change of government tax or fiscal policy, which are outside our control. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our business, cash flows and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

47. There may be less information available about the companies listed on stock exchanges in India compared with information that would be available if we were listed on securities markets in certain other countries.

There may be differences between the level of regulation and monitoring of the Indian securities markets and the activities of investors, brokers and other participants in India and that in the markets in the United States of America and certain other countries. SEBI is responsible for ensuring and improving disclosure and other regulatory standards for the Indian securities markets. SEBI has issued regulations and guidelines on disclosure requirements, insider trading and other matters. There may, however, be less publicly available information about companies listed on an Indian stock exchange compared with information that would be available if that company were listed on a securities market in certain other countries. As a result, investors may have access to less information about the business, results of operations, cash flows and financial conditions, information on business responsibility and sustainability reporting and those of the competitors that are listed on BSE, NSE, and other stock exchanges in India on an ongoing basis than investors may find in the case of companies' subject to reporting requirements of other countries.

48. Financial instability in other countries may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

The Indian market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, including conditions in the United States, Europe and certain emerging economies in Asia. Currencies of a few Asian countries have in the past suffered depreciation against the U.S. Dollar owing to various factors. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy and financial sector and us. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby negatively affect the Indian economy. Concerns related to a trade war between large economies may lead to increased risk aversion and volatility in global capital markets and consequently have an impact on the Indian economy. These developments, or the perception that any related developments could occur, have had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and financial markets, and may significantly reduce global market liquidity, restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets or restrict our access to capital. This could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations and reduce the price of the Equity Shares.

49. If inflation rises in India, increased costs may impact our ability to maintain or achieve profitability.

India has experienced high inflation relative to developed countries in the recent past. Increasing inflation in India could cause a rise in the costs of rent, wages, raw materials and other expenses. High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to adequately pass on to our users, whether entirely or in part, and may adversely affect our business and financial condition. If we are unable to increase our revenues sufficiently to offset our increased costs due to inflation, it could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Further, the GoI has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

50. Non-resident investors are subject to investment restrictions under Indian laws which limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of our Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, the transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to compliance with sectoral norms and certain other restrictions), if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to in the FEMA Non-debt Instruments Rules, then a prior regulatory approval will be required. Further, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of the Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The RBI and the concerned ministries and/or departments are responsible for granting approval for foreign investment. Furthermore, this is subject to the shares having been held on a repatriation basis and, either the security having been sold in compliance with the pricing guidelines or, the relevant regulatory approval having been obtained for the sale of shares and corresponding remittance of the sale proceeds. In addition, pursuant to the Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020, issued by the DPIIT, investments where the beneficial owner of the equity shares is situated in or is a citizen of a country which shares a land border with India, can only be made through the government approval route. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction and/or purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the GoI. Furthermore, on April 22, 2020, the Ministry of Finance, GoI has also made similar amendment to the FEMA Non-debt Instruments Rules. We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or conditions or at all.

51. We are subject to changes in Indian taxation laws and their interpretation.

The Company is subject to taxation laws and regulations in India, which are subject to change from time to time. The Finance Act, 2026 has proposed various amendments to the direct and indirect tax framework, and the impact of such changes is still being evaluated. Any present or future amendments to tax laws, withdrawal or modification of existing exemptions, incentives or tax benefits such as those relating to dividend income from domestic companies and mutual funds, interest on tax-free instruments, or capital gains—may increase our tax liability and adversely affect our profitability and cash flows.

In addition, changes in the interpretation or enforcement of existing tax laws, or the introduction of new regulations, including those governing investments, cross-border transactions or group structures, may require us to undertake additional compliance measures, obtain approvals or restructure certain arrangements. Such changes could result in increased compliance costs, require significant management time and resources, and expose us to potential disputes or litigation with tax authorities.

Tax laws in India are evolving and may be subject to differing interpretations by authorities, and any uncertainty regarding their applicability or implementation could be time-consuming and costly to resolve. We cannot assure you that future legislative or regulatory changes, including those arising from the Finance Act, 2026 or subsequent amendments, will not have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

52. Investors may not be able to enforce a judgment of a foreign court against us, our Directors, the Book Running Lead Manager or any of their directors and executive officers in India respectively, except by way of a lawsuit in India.

Our Company is a public limited company incorporated under the laws of India. Most of our Company's Directors and executive officers named herein are residents of India and all or a substantial portion of the assets of our Company and such persons are located in India. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process on our Company or such persons in jurisdictions outside of India, or to enforce against them judgments obtained in courts outside of India. In addition, India is not a party to any international treaty in relation to the recognition or enforcement of foreign judgments. The manner of recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments in India is dependent on whether the country in which the foreign judgment has been pronounced is a reciprocating territory or not. For further information on recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments in India, please see "Enforcement of Civil Liabilities" on page 19.

A party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India may be required to obtain approval from the RBI under the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 to repatriate outside India any amount recovered pursuant to execution. Any judgment in a foreign currency would be converted into Indian Rupees on the date of the judgment and not on the date of the payment. The Company cannot predict whether a suit brought in an Indian court will be disposed of in a timely manner or be subject to considerable delays.

53. Inflation in India could have an adverse effect on our profitability and if significant, on our financial condition.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of salaries, and other expenses relevant to our business.

High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to pass on to our customers, whether entirely or in part, and the same may adversely affect our business and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or increase our rates to pass the increase in costs on to our customers. In such cases, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected.

Further, the GoI has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

54. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law that limits our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfers of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares is not in compliance with such requirements or falls under any of the specified exceptions, then prior approval of RBI will be required. In addition, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no-objection or tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. Additionally, the Indian government may impose foreign exchange restrictions in certain emergency situations, including situations where there are sudden fluctuations in interest rates or exchange rates, where the Indian government experiences extreme difficulty in stabilizing the balance of payments or where there are substantial disturbances in the financial and capital markets in India. These restrictions may require foreign investors to obtain the Indian government's approval before acquiring Indian securities or repatriating the interest or dividends from those securities or the proceeds from the sale of those securities. There can be no assurance that any approval required from RBI or any other government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

55. We may be affected by competition laws in India, the adverse application or interpretation of which could adversely affect our business.

The Competition Act, 2002, of India, as amended ("Competition Act"), regulates practices having an appreciable adverse effect on competition in the relevant market in India ("AAEC"). Under the Competition Act, any formal or informal arrangement, understanding or action in concert, which causes or is likely to cause an AAEC is considered void and may result in the imposition of substantial penalties. Further, any agreement among competitors which directly or indirectly involves the determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, supply, markets, technical development, investment or the provision of services or shares the market or source of production or provision of services in any manner, including by way of allocation of geographical area or number of consumers in the relevant market or directly or indirectly results in bid-rigging or collusive bidding is presumed to have an AAEC and is considered void. The Competition Act also prohibits abuse of a dominant position by any enterprise. If it is proved that the contravention committed by a company took place with the consent or connivance or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of such company, that person shall be also guilty of the contravention and may be punished.

Further, the CCI has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an AAEC in India. However, the impact of the provisions of the Competition Act on the agreements entered into by us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage. In the event we pursue an acquisition in the future, we may be affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, or any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI, or any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI or if any prohibition or substantial penalties are levied under the Competition Act, it would adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and prospects. The manner in which the Competition Act and the CCI affect the business environment in India may also adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

The Competition (Amendment) Act, 2023 ("Competition Amendment Act") was recently notified. The Competition Amendment Act amends the Competition Act and gives the CCI additional powers to prevent practices that harm competition and the interests of consumers. The Competition Amendment Act, inter alia, modifies the scope of certain factors used to determine AAEC, reduces the overall time limit for the assessment of combinations by the CCI from 210 days to 150 days and empowers the CCI to impose penalties based on the global turnover of entities, for anti-competitive agreements and abuse of dominant position.

56. A third party could be prevented from acquiring control of our Company because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

There are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company. Under the SEBI Takeover Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to our shareholders, such a takeover may not be attempted or consummated because of SEBI Takeover Regulations.

57. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of tax laws, may adversely affect our business, prospects and results of operations.

Our business and financial performance could be materially adversely affected by changes in the laws, rules, regulations or directions applicable to us and our general and microfinance businesses, or the interpretations of such existing laws, rules and regulations, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations. The Government of India has announced the union budget for the Fiscal 2027, pursuant to which the Finance Bill, 2026 ("Finance Bill") has introduced various amendments. We have not fully determined the impact of these recent and proposed laws and regulations on our business. Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. The Government has recently introduced (a) the Code on Wages, 2019 ("Wages Code"); (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020 ("Social Security Code"); (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020, which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labour legislations. While the rules for implementation under these codes were earlier pending, the Government of India has now notified the relevant labour codes on November 21, 2025. The Company is in the process of evaluating the operational, financial and compliance-related implications of these codes. The full impact of these laws on our business and operations is yet to be ascertained and may, among other things, lead to increased compliance requirements, higher employee-related costs and administrative expenses, which could restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy in the jurisdictions in which we operate, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future. For instance, the Supreme Court of India has in a decision clarified the components of basic wages which need to be considered by companies while making provident fund payments, which resulted in an increase in the provident fund payments to be made by companies. Any such decisions in future or any further changes in interpretation of laws may have an impact on our results of operations.

58. We are subject to regulatory, economic, social and political uncertainties and other factors beyond our control.

We are incorporated in India and we conduct our corporate affairs and our business in India. Consequently, our business, operations and financial performance will be affected by interest rates, government policies, taxation, social and ethnic instability and other political and economic developments affecting India.

Factors that may adversely affect the Indian economy, and hence our results of operations may include:

- any exchange rate fluctuations, the imposition of currency controls and restrictions on the right to convert or repatriate currency or export assets;
- any scarcity of credit or other financing in India, resulting in an adverse effect on economic conditions in India and scarcity of financing for our expansions;
- prevailing income conditions among Indian customers and Indian corporations;
- epidemic or any other public health in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India's various neighbouring countries;
- hostile or war like situations with the neighbouring countries;
- macroeconomic factors and central bank regulation, including in relation to interest rates movements which may in turn adversely impact our access to capital and increase our borrowing costs;
- decline in India's foreign exchange reserves which may affect liquidity in the Indian economy;
- downgrading of India's sovereign debt rating by rating agencies; and
- difficulty in developing any necessary partnerships with local businesses on commercially acceptable terms and/or a timely basis.
- Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy, or in specific sectors of the Indian economy or certain regions in India, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition and the price of the Equity Shares.

The fund requirements, the deployment of funds and the intended use of the Net Proceeds as described herein are based on our current business plan, management estimates, market conditions, and other commercial and technical factors. However, such fund requirements and deployment of funds have not been appraised by any bank, or financial institution or any other independent agency. Given the nature of our business, we may have to revise our funding requirements and intended deployment schedule on account of a variety of factors such as our financial and market condition, business and strategy, delay in procuring and operationalizing assets or necessary licenses and approvals, competition, negotiation with vendors, variation in cost estimates on account of factors, incremental pre-operative expenses and other external factors such as changes in the business environment and interest or exchange rate fluctuations, which may not be within the control of our management. Our historical capital expenditure may not be reflective of our future capital expenditure plans.

In the event that the estimated utilization of the Net Proceeds and Issue related expenses in a scheduled fiscal year is not completely met, due to the reasons stated above, the same shall be utilised in the next fiscal year or if required, the amount scheduled for deployment in a specific Fiscal may be utilized in an earlier Fiscal, as may be determined by our Company, in accordance with applicable laws. Subject to compliance with applicable laws, in case of any variations in the actual utilization of funds earmarked for the purposes set forth above, increased fund requirements for a particular purpose may be financed from internal accruals, additional equity and/or debt arrangements or by surplus funds available in respect of the other purposes for which funds are being raised in the Issue (except towards general corporate purposes). For details, see “Risk Factors – We propose to utilize the Net Proceeds to augment the capital base of our Company and not for any specified projects.” on page 40.

If the Net Proceeds are not utilized (in full or in part) for the Objects for the period stated above due to any reason, including (i) the timing of completion of the Issue; (ii) market conditions outside the control of our Company; and (iii) any other economic, business and commercial considerations, the remaining Net Proceeds shall be utilized (in part or full) in subsequent periods in such manner as may be determined by our Company, in accordance with applicable laws. Further, our Company may also utilise any portion of or the entire Net Proceeds, towards the aforementioned Objects, ahead of the estimated schedule of deployment specified above.

Details of the Objects of the Issue

1. To augment our capital base and provide for our fund requirements for increasing our operational scale with respect to our NBFC activities

We are an RBI-registered Non-Banking Financial Company (NBFC) engaged in equity and debt investments, securities trading, and providing unsecured financing to individuals and small businesses. As an NBFC–Non-Systemically Important, Non-Deposit Taking Company, the capital adequacy norms prescribed by the Reserve Bank of India are not applicable to us.

Through this Issue, we propose to augment our capital base by ₹2,233.60 Lakhs, which will strengthen our financial position and enable us to scale our NBFC operations. The proceeds from the Issue will be primarily utilized to expand our lending and financing activities. With an enhanced capital base, the Company intends to increase its loan portfolio both qualitatively and quantitatively—by targeting eligible customers for secured and unsecured credit facilities.

Further, the Company plans to deploy a portion of the Issue proceeds to expand its investment and trading portfolio. This includes undertaking short-term and long-term investments in listed and unlisted equity, strategic investments, debt instruments, derivatives, and other securities. Our investment approach is driven by prevailing opportunities and market conditions across sectors, without any predefined restrictions or rigid criteria.

Leveraging the diverse experience of our Board and our network of professionals, the Company aims to pursue strategic, high-potential investments in sectors undergoing growth and transformation, with a long-term value creation perspective.

Our Company’s management will retain the flexibility to deploy any surplus funds, if available, in compliance with applicable laws and as may be approved by the Board of Directors or a duly constituted committee thereof, from time to time. In the event of any variation in the actual utilization of the Net Proceeds from the purposes stated above, any increased fund requirement for a particular objective may be met by reallocating surplus funds, if any, not required for the other stated purposes.

Our management, in response to the competitive and dynamic nature of the industry, will have the discretion to revise its business plan from time to time and consequently our funding requirement and deployment of funds may change. This may also include rescheduling the proposed utilization of Net Proceeds and increasing or decreasing expenditure for a particular object i.e., the utilization of Net Proceeds. In case of a shortfall in the Net Proceeds, our management may explore a range of options including utilizing our internal accruals or seeking debt from future lenders. Our management expects that such alternate arrangements would be available to fund any such shortfall. Our management, in accordance with the policies of our Board, will have flexibility in utilizing the proceeds earmarked for general corporate purposes. In the event that we are unable to utilize the entire amount that we have currently estimated for use out of Net Proceeds in a Fiscal, we will utilize such unutilized amount in the next Fiscal.

Interim use of Net Proceeds

Our Company, in accordance with the policies formulated by our Board from time to time, will have flexibility to deploy the Net Proceeds. Pending utilization of the Net Proceeds for the purposes described above, our Company may buy, trade or otherwise dealing in shares of any unlisted company or any other listed company or for any investment in the equity markets or we may invest the funds in high quality interest bearing liquid instruments including money market mutual funds, deposits with banks or temporarily deploy the funds in working capital loan accounts and other investment grade interest bearing securities as may be approved by the Board and in accordance with the MOA and AOA of the company. Such investments would be in accordance with the investment policies approved by our Board and Shareholders, if applicable/ required from time to time and at the prevailing commercial rates at the time of investment.

India's economic progress, which is largely dependent on the Financial Sector, is not only a key factor of stability in the global economy, but also a source of immense economic opportunity for the world. The far-reaching changes in the Indian economy since liberalization in the early 1990s have had a deep impact on the Indian financial sector. India's financial sector has been one of the fastest growing sectors in the economy. The various steps taken by the government and the regulators since liberalization to meet the challenges of a complex financial architecture have ensured that a new face of the Indian financial sector is emerging to culminate into a strong, transparent and resilient system.

Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs) are an important constituent of Indian financial system. NBFCs play a crucial role in credit disbursement within the country be it financing people uncovered by the banks, entrepreneurs & corporates, housing and infrastructure sectors. NBFCs provide collateral/non-based loans and their reach has spread to far flung areas. The development role of NBFCs is increasingly being recognised. As an important channel in the financial inclusion of masses and MSMEs¹, NBFCs play a crucial role in bridging the market gap for credit. With the onset of digital era, a new breed of NBFCs have emerged in the market which are adopting disruptive technologies to assess risk, connect with customers and innovate processes to streamline their operations and customer experience.

Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs) have increasingly been playing a significant role in financial intermediation by complementing and competing with banks, and by bringing in efficiency and diversity into the financial ecosystem. NBFCs enjoy greater operational flexibility to take up wider scale of activities, enter into new geographies and sectors and thus grow their operations.

India's NBFC ecosystem has quietly transformed from acting as niche financiers to vital pillars of the country's financial system. With their rising market share, deeper penetration into underserved segments, and agility in adopting technology, NBFCs are now scripting a new chapter in India's credit evolution.

India's financial sector features a variety of types of NBFCs, each playing a unique role in supporting economic growth and providing financial services beyond traditional banking. These are as follows:

1. Asset Finance Companies (AFCs): These primarily engage in financing assets such as machinery, vehicles, equipment, and other tangible assets. AFCs cater to individuals, small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), and corporates by offering customised financing solutions for the acquisition of essential assets.
2. Loan companies: These offer personal loans, home loans, education loans, and extend credit facilities to businesses in the form of working capital loans, trade finance and project financing.
3. Infrastructure Finance Companies (IFCs): IFCs primarily finance projects in sectors like power, roads, telecommunications, and transportation. By providing long-term loans and project-specific funding, IFCs contribute to the creation of robust infrastructure, enabling economic progress and enhancing the overall quality of life.
4. Microfinance Institutions (MFIs): MFIs provide small loans, also known as microloans to low-income individuals and self-help groups (SHGs). By extending credit to micro-entrepreneurs and marginalised communities, MFIs empower them to establish or expand small businesses, lifting them out of poverty and fostering sustainable livelihoods.
5. Investment Companies: Investment companies are predominantly engaged in the acquisition and management of financial assets such as stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and securities. These NBFCs cater to both retail and institutional investors, facilitating investment opportunities across various asset classes.
6. Systemically Important Core Investment Companies (CICS-SI): These are a subset of Investment Companies and hold at least 90% of its total assets in the form of investments in equity shares, debt, or other financial assets of its group companies. These entities have the potential to impact the stability of the financial sector. To maintain financial stability, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) regulates and supervises these companies more closely.

small amounts and are used for income-generating activities such as small businesses or agricultural activities.

Credit Scenario in India:

Overall credit to GDP ratio in India stood at 93% as of CY 2024, which was significantly lower as compared to 138% for United Kingdom, 143% for United States and 198% for China, signalling significant room for credit penetration in the nation.

Bank credit to metropolitan areas has decreased over the past few years with its share decreasing from 66% as of March 31, 2019, to 59% as of March 31, 2025. Between the same period, credit share has witnessed a marginal rise in rural areas (7% as of Fiscal 2019 to 9% as of Fiscal 2025) and semi-urban areas (12% as of Fiscal 2019 to 14% as of Fiscal 2025). Rural areas, which is estimated to account for 47% of GDP, received just 9% of the overall banking credit as of March 31, 2025, which shows the vast market opportunity for NBFCs to lend in these areas.

With increasing focus of government towards financial inclusion, rising financial awareness, increasing smartphone and internet penetration, the delivery of credit services in rural areas is expected to increase.

Comparative Analysis of NBFCs and Banks:

Aspect	NBFC	Bank
Regulation	Regulated by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) but with fewer restrictions compared to banks	Heavily regulated by the RBI and must meet strict criteria on capital adequacy and statutory liquidity
Deposit Acceptance	Cannot accept demand deposits like savings accounts	Can accept demand deposits and offer checking and savings account services
Credit Creation	Do not have credit creation power	Have the power to create credit within the economy
Foreign Exchange Services	Limited to certain NBFCs with specific approval	Generally allowed to deal in foreign exchange
Maintenance of Reserve Ratios	Not required to maintain SLR (Statutory Liquidity Ratio) or CRR (Cash Reserve Ratio)	Mandatory to maintain CRR and SLR as per RBI guidelines
Loan Securitization	Often engage in securitisation of loans (selling loans as securities)	Less frequently involved in securitisation compared to NBFCs
Customer Focus	Usually focus on customer segments or markets underserved by traditional banks, such as small businesses or individuals with non-traditional credit profiles	Serve a broader customer base, including individuals, large corporations, and other financial entities
Interest Rates	Often have higher interest rates due to less strict regulatory requirements and higher risk profiles	Usually offer lower interest rates due to their ability to raise cheaper funds and a more regulated environment
Innovation and Flexibility	Generally, more flexible and quicker to innovate in terms of loan products due to fewer regulatory constraints	Innovation can be slower due to larger size, complexity and regulatory compliance requirements

Contribution of NBFC Credit to Real GDP (%):

The credit provided by Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs) in India has seen a sharp rise over the years, with NBFC credit to GDP increasing to 26% in FY 25, up from 16% in FY 19. This growth showed that NBFCs continue to outpace traditional banks and are playing an increasingly important role in India's financial ecosystem. NBFCs have emerged as key lenders to retail borrowers, Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs), and participants in the informal sector, segments that are often underserved by banks.

Increasing Share of NBFC Credit in Overall Systemic Credit²:

² HFCs: Housing Finance Companies. CP: Commercial Paper. EB: External Borrowings. CB: Corporate Bonds.

The share of NBFCs in the overall systemic credit has increased from 17% in FY 19 to 21% in FY 25. Their credit contribution is now higher than that of commercial papers and external borrowings in the credit system. NBFC's share in the overall Systemic credit to reach 22% by FY 28.

Credit Growth Outlook for Banks and NBFCs:

Over the past six fiscal years, banks have trailed NBFCs in terms of credit growth, except for fiscal 2022. NBFCs gained market share over banks, with a CAGR growth of ~13.9% between fiscal 2020-25, compared to banks' credit growth of ~11.4% during the same period.

NBFC Credit Growth Outpacing Systemic Credit:

The credit growth of NBFCs which has trended above India's GDP growth historically, is expected to continue to rise at a faster pace. NBFCs have shown remarkable resilience and gained importance in the financial sector ecosystem, growing from less than ₹2 trillion AUM³ at the turn of the century to ₹48 trillion at the end of FY 25. During FY 19 to FY 25, NBFC credit is estimated to have witnessed a growth at CAGR of 13.2%. NBFCs AUM as of FY 19 was approximately ₹23 trillion which grew at a 6-year CAGR of 13.2% to Rs. 48 trillion as of FY 25. Rapid revival in the economy is expected to drive consumer demand in FY 26, leading to healthy growth in NBFCs. Going forward, NBFC credit is expected to grow at 15% - 17% CAGR between FY 25 and FY 28 reaching ₹74-77 trillion driven by growth across retail, MSME and corporate segments continuing to be the primary drivers.

NBFCs will remain a force to reckon within the Indian credit landscape, given their inherent strength of providing last-mile funding and catering to customer segments that are less in focus by the Banks. Going forward, NBFCs are expected to continue to gain market share over other lenders due to their ability to provide flexible lending solutions and tailored services, focused approach to tap under-served and niche customer segments, ability to penetrate deeper into geographies, leveraging technology to reimagine the lending process, strong origination skills and shorter turnaround time.

NBFC Credit Mix Across Asset Classes (FY 2025):

Though Infrastructure accounts for the highest share in NBFC credit (26%) as of FY 2025, its share in the overall NBFC credit outstanding has come down over the past years from 31% in FY 2019. Retail and MSME segments are expected to experience higher growth in the upcoming fiscals. MSME credit accounted for 23% share as of FY 2025, witnessing a rise in its market share from 16% in FY 2019. Housing and auto segment constitute ~16% and ~11% share in overall NBFC credit as of FY 2025. The retail loan growth rate is expected to increase moderately to 17% - 18% in fiscal 2026, driven by growth in housing, vehicle and consumer durable loans. MSME, Housing and Auto Financing contributed ~50% to overall NBFC credit in FY 2025.

In contrast, the wholesale segment's growth rate is projected to decline slightly, mainly due to an expected slowdown in infrastructure disbursements. MSME and corporate and real estate loans are expected to continue to see an uptick.

Growth Trajectory of Asset Classes:

Funding Structure of NBFCs (FY 25E):

Share of bank's lending to NBFCs have almost doubled during last 10 years. Going forward, it is expected that funding access would gradually improve for NBFCs who are able to demonstrate strong performance. Reliance on bank funding is estimated to remain at 38% as of FY 2025E. Bank exposure to NBFCs to gain momentum in medium term as RBI has restored the risk weights on bank loans to NBFCs to 100% from 125%, effective from April 1, 2025.

Scale-Based Regulatory Framework for NBFCs:

Over the years, the NBFC sector has evolved considerably in terms of size, complexity and interconnectedness within the financial sector and hence there was a need to align the regulatory framework for NBFCs keeping in view their changing risk profile. Accordingly, the Reserve Bank has implemented a Scale-Based Regulatory Framework or SBR Framework for regulation of NBFCs w.e.f. October 01, 2022. The SBR Framework which is based on the principle of proportionality takes into account various factors like size, activity, complexity, interconnectedness, etc., within the financial sector for categorising NBFCs into various layers. The degree of regulations increases as one move from lower to higher layers.

Policy Initiatives Promoting Sector Growth:

Initiative / Scheme	Issuing Authority	Key Objective
Co-Lending Model (CLM) Guidelines	RBI	Enables banks and NBFCs to jointly lend to priority and non-priority sectors. Improves access to low-cost funds and expands NBFC lending capacity
Partial Credit Guarantee Scheme (PCGS)	Government of India	Liquidity support measure to strengthen the NBFC sector and restore confidence in the credit market, particularly following periods of systemic stress
External Commercial Borrowing (ECB) Framework	RBI / Government of India	Allows NBFCs to raise foreign debt with defined end-use and maturity norms. Expands funding avenues beyond domestic markets.
Pradhan Mantri Mudra Yojana (PMMY)	Government of India	Promotes institutional credit to micro and small enterprises and expands lending opportunities for NBFCs. Refinance support is provided to NBFCs to ensure financial access to small businesses at the grassroots level
Financial Inclusion Initiatives	Government of India	Increases formal credit penetration and digital financial access and broadens NBFC customer base and loan origination opportunities
SARFAESI Act Extension to NBFCs	Government of India	Enables NBFCs to recover secured debts without court intervention. Strengthens recovery mechanisms and asset quality management

Emerging Opportunities for NBFCs:

While banks are the primary institutions for banking in India, retail loan portfolio forms only 36% of the overall banking credit as of FY 25. Other focus areas for banks are wholesale lending to large corporates, credit to services sector and agriculture sector.

Lower presence of banks in the retail space has created an opportunity for NBFCs to penetrate the segment which has also led to greater financial inclusion as NBFCs also cater to riskier customer profiles with lower income. Compared to that of banks, NBFC credit to retail segment forms 45% of its portfolio as of FY 2025 indicating larger focus on retail customers. Rural areas, presents vast market opportunity for NBFCs.

NBFCs have played a major role in meeting this need, complementing banks and other financial institutions. NBFCs help fill gaps in the availability of financial services with respect to products as well as customer and geographic segments. A strong linkage at the grassroots level makes them a critical cog in the financial machine.

They cater to the unbanked and underbanked masses in rural and semi-urban India and lend to the informal sector and people without credit histories, thereby enabling the government and regulators to realize the mission of financial inclusion.

The NBFC sector has, over the years, evolved considerably in terms of size, operations, technological sophistication, and entry into newer areas of financial services and products. The number of NBFCs as well as the size of the sector has grown significantly, with several players with heterogeneous business models starting operations.

The increasing penetration of neobanking, digital authentication, and mobile phone usage as well as mobile internet has resulted in the modularization of financial services, particularly credit. Overall NBFC credit during FY 2019 to FY 2025 was majorly led by retail segment which is estimated to have witnessed a CAGR of ~15.4%, while NBFC non-retail credit is estimated to have witnessed a growth of ~11.5% during the same time period.

Key Drivers Supporting Growth:

1. Better consideration of untapped markets:

NBFCs have been instrumental in addressing the credit needs of segments that are often underserved by traditional banks. Rural and semi-urban areas, as well as small and medium enterprises (SMEs), have witnessed a surge in demand for financial services. NBFCs, with their flexible approach and localised understanding, have been able to cater to these markets effectively, driving their growth in the process.

2. Innovative products and services:

The dynamic nature of NBFCs has allowed them to introduce innovative financial products and services, catering to the diverse needs of the Indian population. From microfinance to consumer finance and housing loans, NBFCs have tailored their offerings to specific market segments. This flexibility has enabled them to capture a substantial market share and establish a niche for themselves.

3. Technology adoption:

Embracing digital platforms for lending, payments, and customer service has enhanced operational efficiency and reduced costs. Many NBFCs leverage data analytics, artificial intelligence, and machine learning to assess credit risk more effectively, streamline processes, and enhance customer experience. This tech-driven approach has given NBFCs a competitive edge in the market.

4. Partnerships and collaborations:

NBFCs in India have actively sought partnerships and collaborations with banks, fintech companies, and other financial institutions. These alliances have facilitated access to capital, expanded distribution networks and allowed for the cross-selling of products. Collaborations with technology firms have also enabled NBFCs to stay at the forefront of innovation, contributing to their sustained growth.

Challenges Facing the Sector:

1. Access to Capital:

NBFCs often face difficulties in accessing capital at competitive rates. Unlike banks, which have access to low-cost deposits, NBFCs rely heavily on market borrowings, including loans from banks and debentures. This reliance on external borrowings makes NBFCs vulnerable to fluctuations in interest rates and market conditions, which can affect their ability to lend and expand.

2. Borrower Profile:

Many NBFCs lend to segments that are considered high-risk, such as small and medium enterprises (SMEs), real estate developers, and retail borrowers with lower credit scores.

3. Competition from Banks and FinTechs

Traditional banks have been expanding their reach into rural and semi-urban areas, which were traditionally the stronghold of NBFCs. Additionally, the rise of FinTech companies has introduced new competition, particularly in areas like digital lending and payment services. FinTechs, with their technology-driven models and focus on customer experience, are attracting a significant share of the market that NBFCs once dominated.

4. Technology Adoption:

Many NBFCs, particularly smaller ones, lack the resources to invest in advanced technology platforms. This digital divide can hinder their competitiveness, especially against larger NBFCs and FinTech companies. Moreover, integrating technology into traditional business models requires a shift in organizational culture and capabilities, which can be a daunting task for many NBFCs.

5. Governance and Risk Management:

Weak governance frameworks and inadequate risk management practices have been at the root of several crises in the NBFC sector. The lack of robust internal controls, transparency, and accountability can lead to mismanagement, fraud and financial instability. Strengthening governance and implementing effective risk management practices are essential for the long-term sustainability of NBFCs.

Key Performance Trends of NBFCs:

Asset Quality:

Asset Quality for NBFCs improved in FY 2024 on account of normalisation of economic activity and improved collection efficiency across segments with the gold segment being an exception. The asset quality of NBFCs continued the improvement trend till March 2024. In FY 2025, asset quality improved for all retail segments except for microfinance where overleveraging of underlying borrowers was the key reason for deterioration. Housing, personal loans, vehicle and gold loans recorded improvement in asset quality supported by resilient underlying customer base from the impact of high interest rates as well as tightened monitoring and collection efforts by NBFCs. Improving Asset Quality for NBFCs in FY 2023, FY 2024 and FY 2025, shows comfort for mid-term growth.

Credit Cost and Return on Asset:

Overall yield for the retail segments increased in FY 2023 due to the interest rates hikes. However, the amount of pass-on has been distinct across all segments on account of level of competition, nature of asset class and segmental credit demand. Accordingly, a stable or modest increase in Return on Asset was seen across all segments in FY 2024. In FY 2023, decline in credit costs due to improved collections and lower slippages supported improvement in profitability aided by higher yields. In FY 2024 and FY 2025, credit cost moderately declined on account of improved collections and lower asset quality stress translating to moderate increase in Return on Asset.

The NBFC Roadmap to 2025 and Beyond:

As India aims to become a $5 trillion economy, NBFCs will be even more important in driving fair and inclusive growth. They combine the discipline of formal finance with the understanding of India's unique needs, making them crucial for the country's development. They have shown that making money and helping people access finance can go hand in hand, through innovation and smart operations. NBFCs can build sustainable businesses while empowering more people financially.

In terms of the FEMA Regulations, for calculating the aggregate holding of FPIs in a company, holding of all registered FPIs shall be included. Further, in terms of the FEMA Rules, the total holding of each FPI or an investor group shall be below 10.00% of the post-issue total paid-up Equity Share capital of our Company on a fully diluted basis.

In case the holding of an FPI including its investor group increases to 10.00% or more of the total paid-up equity capital, on a fully diluted basis, the FPI including its investor group is required to divest the excess holding within five trading days from the date of settlement of the trades resulting in the breach. In the event that such divestment of excess holding is not done, the total investment made by such FPI together with its investor group will be reclassified as FDI as per the procedure specified by SEBI and the FPI and its investor group will be prohibited from making any further portfolio investment in our Company under the SEBI FPI Regulations. SEBI however, pursuant to its Circular dated May 17, 2018 (Circular No: SEBI/HO/IMD/FPIC/CIR/P/2018/81), directed that this system of monitoring foreign investment limits in Indian listed companies be made operational with effect from June 1, 2018. The depository is then required to inform the Stock Exchanges about the activation of the red flag. The Stock Exchanges are then required to issue the necessary circulars/ public notifications on their respective websites. Once a red flag is activated, the FPIs must trade cautiously, because in the event that there is a breach of the sectoral cap, the FPIs will be under an obligation to disinvest the excess holding within five trading days from the date of settlement of the trades.

Eligible FPIs are permitted to participate in the Issue subject to compliance with conditions and restrictions which may be specified by the Government from time to time. Overview

We are a Listed Non-Banking Financial Company (“NBFC”) registered with the Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) as a Non-Systemically Important, Non-Deposit Taking NBFC, classified as an Investment and Credit Company (“NBFC-ICC”) under Section 45-IA of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934. We are engaged in the business of providing credit solutions, making financial investments, and offering advisory and asset-related services through an integrated financial services platform. Our Company has steadily evolved over more than three decades into a diversified financial platform that bridges traditional lending with modern investment and advisory services.

We commenced our operations in 1991 and have over three decades of operating history in the Indian financial services sector. Over the years, our Company has evolved from a traditional lending-focused NBFC into a diversified financial services platform, offering lending, investment, and advisory services to a broad client base comprising of corporate, MSMEs, investors, and asset owners.

Since our equity shares are listed on BSE Limited and regulated by RBI, our operations are conducted in accordance with applicable RBI regulations, SEBI regulations, and other applicable laws governing NBFCs and listed companies.

Our Company was originally incorporated as Overnite Finance Private Limited and was subsequently converted into a public limited company. Thereafter, the Company underwent multiple name changes reflecting changes in ownership, scale, and business focus, ultimately operating as Oracle Credit Limited for a significant period. A defining moment in our journey came in February 2021, when our current promoters, Aditya Vikram Kanoria and Mandeep Singh entered into a Share Purchase Agreement with the then promoters, Ashok Kumar Jain and Sugan Chand Jain, to acquire 17,29,650 equity shares constituting 31.16% of the voting capital of the Company. This marked a strategic shift in leadership, bringing in a new vision focused on diversification, modernization, and long-term value creation. Under the guidance of our new promoters, our Company has taken deliberate steps toward redefining its business model. The emphasis has moved from a purely transactional lending approach to building a holistic financial ecosystem one that integrates credit, investment, and advisory into a single, agile platform. The objective is to serve clients not just as financiers but as partners in progress, helping them unlock opportunities through capital, connections, and counsel. Due to this strategic reorientation of our Company’s business model, the Company, thereafter, adopted its present name, Credent Global Finance Limited, this change reflects the Company’s current strategic focus on providing multi-product financial solutions rather than operating as a mono-line credit provider.

Our core business revolves around providing structured financing solutions, making strategic investments, and offering specialized advisory services. These include term lending, bridge finance, project funding, investment in listed and unlisted securities, and strategic consultancy in asset management, mergers and acquisitions, and real estate. Over the years, we have also extended our reach to portfolio management, private equity facilitation, and credit realignment services.

Our approach is guided by the following three key principles Prudence, Performance, and Partnership:

1. Prudence

Prudence forms the foundation of our approach to capital deployment and risk management. As a regulated NBFC, we prioritise capital preservation, asset quality, and regulatory compliance while pursuing growth. We follow a cautious and selective approach to lending, investments, and advisory engagements, with emphasis on long-term sustainability rather than short-term expansion.

This focus on prudence is critical in financial services, where credit quality, liquidity discipline, and concentration risks directly influence stability and shareholder value. Our Company therefore seeks to balance growth opportunities with a clear risk appetite, ensuring that business decisions remain aligned with internal controls and prevailing regulatory norms.

In practice, prudence is embedded through structured credit appraisal, careful assessment of cash flows and security cover, portfolio diversification, and periodic review of exposures. Our investment activities follow valuation discipline and liquidity considerations, enabling us to manage downside risk while maintaining resilience across economic cycles.

2. Performance

Performance reflects our commitment to generating consistent, risk-adjusted returns across business cycles. While prudence governs risk containment, performance ensures efficient utilisation of capital to deliver sustainable profitability and value creation for shareholders. Our focus is on building a scalable business model supported by diversified revenue streams.

For an NBFC, performance is measured not only by growth in assets or income, but also by portfolio quality, capital efficiency, and operating discipline. Our Company seeks to optimise performance by balancing interest income from lending with investment income and fee-based advisory revenues, thereby reducing reliance on any single line of business.

Operationally, performance is driven through defined return benchmarks, disciplined execution, and continuous monitoring of financial and operational metrics. This structured approach allows timely decision-making, effective capital allocation, and alignment of business growth with long-term financial objectives.

3. Partnership

Partnership underlines our approach to client engagement and long-term business development. Our Company seeks to operate not merely as a provider of capital, but as a financial partner that supports clients across their growth, restructuring, and investment requirements. This relationship-oriented approach enables deeper understanding of client needs and more effective solution structuring.

The importance of partnership lies in the nature of our client base, which includes mid-market enterprises, MSMEs, investors, and asset owners requiring customised and flexible financial solutions. By aligning our interests with those of our clients, we aim to support sustainable business outcomes rather than transactional engagements.

This principle is reflected through repeat relationships, integrated offerings across lending, investment, and advisory services, and a consultative engagement model. Over time, this approach enhances client retention, improves risk visibility, and creates opportunities for cross-vertical engagement, supporting stable and scalable growth.

Collectively, these principles guide our strategic decisions, operational execution, and stakeholder engagement, enabling our Company to pursue disciplined growth while creating long-term value for shareholders.

Our Company operates through a holding company structure supported by wholly owned subsidiaries; each engaged in specific and complementary business activities within the financial services domain. Credent Global Finance Limited functions as the principal operating entity and the regulated Non-Banking Financial Company (“NBFC”), responsible for undertaking lending and credit-related activities, and compliance with applicable regulatory requirements prescribed by the Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”).

The subsidiaries undertake specialised investment, advisory, asset management, and real estate-related activities. This structure allows the Company to segregate regulated NBFC activities from non-lending and fee-based businesses, while maintaining strategic alignment, governance oversight, and financial control at the holding company level. The holding company structure enables focused execution across business lines and provides flexibility to scale individual verticals based on market conditions and regulatory considerations.

All subsidiaries are wholly owned by the Company and operate under the strategic direction and supervision of the Board of Directors of Credent Global Finance Limited. The Company exercises oversight through periodic reporting, internal audits, compliance reviews, and group-level policies, ensuring that subsidiary operations remain aligned with the overall business objectives, risk appetite, and governance framework of the Company. Our Services

Our Company operates across multiple segments of the financial services value chain, comprising credit, investment, and advisory services. These activities are conducted through an integrated operating framework, enabling the Company to service a range of financing, investment, and advisory requirements of enterprises and individuals.

The business of the Company is organised into three principal business lines, namely Lending and Credit Solutions, Investment and Portfolio Management, and Advisory and Asset Services. These business lines are supported by wholly owned subsidiaries that undertake specialised activities aligned with the respective verticals.

1. Lending and Credit Solutions

Lending and credit solutions constitute a primary business activity of the Company. Through this business line, the Company provides financing solutions to businesses and individuals in the form of term loans, bridge finance, working capital facilities, and structured credit arrangements.

The lending activities are primarily directed towards mid-market enterprises, micro, small and medium enterprises (“MSMEs”), and select borrowers who require customised financing solutions. Credit proposals are evaluated based on an assessment of financial information, cash flow generation, security cover, sector characteristics, and borrower profile, in line with the Company’s internal credit assessment framework and applicable regulatory guidelines.

The lending business is conducted with an emphasis on structured evaluation and monitoring of exposures, with periodic review of loan performance and portfolio composition. Interest income derived from these activities forms a component of the Company’s operating revenue.

2. Investment and Portfolio Management

The Company is also engaged in investment and portfolio management activities, which include investments in listed and unlisted equity shares, debt securities, bonds, mutual fund units, and other permissible financial instruments. These activities are primarily undertaken through Credent Investment Private Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Investment decisions are based on factors such as market conditions, valuation parameters, liquidity considerations, and alignment with the Company's overall capital management approach. The investment portfolio comprises a mix of instruments held for income generation, capital appreciation, and strategic purposes, depending on the nature of the investment.

This business line enables the Company to deploy surplus funds and capital in financial assets, contributing investment income and supporting overall portfolio diversification.

3. Advisory and Asset Services

The advisory and asset services business is undertaken through Credent Asset Management Services Private Limited and Credent Property Advisory Private Limited, both wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company. Through this business line, the Company provides advisory services relating to financial restructuring, transaction advisory, mergers and acquisitions support, debt syndication, asset management assistance, and real estate advisory.

In the real estate advisory segment, services include advisory on acquisition, development planning, and portfolio optimisation for developers, investors, and asset owners. In the financial advisory segment, services are provided to businesses seeking support in capital structuring, transaction execution, and asset monetisation.

Revenue from this business line is primarily fee-based and is linked to advisory mandates and service engagements.

Integrated Operating Framework

While each business line operates with defined roles and responsibilities, the Company follows an integrated operating framework that allows coordination across lending, investment, and advisory activities. This structure enables efficient utilisation of resources, consistent oversight, and alignment of business activities with the Company's overall strategy and risk management framework.

Our Strengths

Our strengths, which support the sustainability and scalability of our business model, are as follows:

1. Long Operating Track Record with Ability to Adapt and Reposition

We have an operating history of more than three decades in the Indian financial services sector, during which we have navigated multiple economic cycles, evolving regulatory frameworks, and changing market conditions. This long-standing presence has enabled us to develop institutional knowledge across credit assessment, investment evaluation, and advisory execution.

Over time, we have demonstrated the ability to adapt our business model in response to shifts in client demand, regulatory expectations, and market opportunities. While our operations were initially centred on lending activities, we have progressively transitioned into a diversified financial services platform encompassing lending, investment, and advisory services.

Following the change in promoter shareholding in February 2021, we undertook a deliberate strategic reorientation focused on diversification, governance strengthening, and long-term value creation. This combination of operating continuity and strategic evolution allows us to apply experience-based judgment while aligning our business with contemporary market requirements.

2. Integrated Financial Services Platform

We operate an integrated financial services platform that spans lending and credit solutions, investment and portfolio management, and advisory and asset-related services. This integrated structure allows us to address a wide range of financial requirements of our clients within a single organisational framework.

Rather than operating as a mono-line NBFC, we coordinate balance-sheet-based lending activities with fee-based advisory and investment services, while maintaining appropriate segregation of regulated and non-regulated activities. This integration enables efficient utilisation of capital, management bandwidth, and operational infrastructure across business verticals.

From an investor perspective, our integrated platform supports diversification of operations and provides flexibility to allocate resources across business lines based on market conditions, regulatory developments, and opportunity sets.

3. Diversified Revenue Profile

We derive revenue from multiple sources, including interest income from lending activities, investment income from financial assets, and fee-based income from advisory and asset-related services. This diversified revenue profile reduces dependence on any single business line and enhances resilience across business cycles.

Our lending operations provide recurring interest income, while advisory and asset services generate non-interest income linked to mandates, transactions, and client engagements. Investment activities further complement this mix by enabling deployment of surplus capital into financial instruments based on market conditions.

This balance between interest-based and fee-based income allows us to manage earnings volatility more effectively and supports stability in periods of cyclical variation in any one segment.

4. Experienced Promoters and Management Team

We are led by promoters and a senior management team with experience in financial services, investments, and advisory-related activities. Since the change in promoters in 2021, we have undertaken strategic initiatives focused on strengthening governance, diversifying operations, and building a sustainable business platform.

We have an experienced and dedicated management team, including KMPs and Senior Management with significant industry experience and who have demonstrated their ability to deliver growth and profitability, across business cycles. Our investment performance is supported by our experienced and professional investment team. Our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management include a combination of management executives and independent members who bring in significant business experience, which positions us well to capitalize on future growth opportunities. Each of them has extensive experience in the banking or related industry such as finance, commercial operations, strategy, audit, business development, human resources, compliance and public relations. Our management is committed to implementing high standards of corporate governance with a focus on the investors' best interests and the maximisation of shareholder value and we have established policies and procedures to support transparency, sound business ethics and a well-established compliance framework.

Our promoters and management are actively involved in strategic planning, capital allocation, and oversight of risk management and compliance across the group. Their experience supports informed decision-making across lending, investment deployment, and advisory engagements.

This leadership framework provides us with operational continuity while enabling execution of growth initiatives aligned with our long-term strategy.

5. Regulatory Compliance and Governance Framework

As a listed NBFC, we operate under the regulatory oversight of the Reserve Bank of India and the Securities and Exchange Board of India. Compliance with applicable RBI guidelines, SEBI regulations, and corporate governance norms forms an integral part of our operations.

We have established internal processes for compliance monitoring, audit, and reporting, which extend across the parent company and our wholly owned subsidiaries. Group-level oversight by our Board of Directors and management ensures that subsidiary operations remain aligned with regulatory expectations and internal governance standards.

Our emphasis on regulatory discipline and governance supports transparency, strengthens risk oversight, and provides confidence to investors regarding the sustainability and integrity of our operations.

Our Strategies

Our strategies to drive sustainable growth and long-term value creation are as follows:

1. Focus on Disciplined Capital Deployment and Risk-Adjusted Returns

We believe that sustainable value creation in financial services is driven by disciplined capital deployment and a consistent focus on risk-adjusted returns. Our strategy is to allocate capital selectively across lending, investment, and advisory activities, with emphasis on asset quality, cash-flow visibility, appropriate security cover, and downside risk management.

We seek to balance growth objectives with capital preservation, recognising that long-term performance is dependent on prudent decision-making across market cycles.

Our capital deployment decisions are supported by structured internal evaluation processes, including financial analysis, sector assessment, counterparty review, and ongoing monitoring of exposures. We intend to continue strengthening our internal research and analytical capabilities to improve the quality of decision-making across business verticals. This includes refining internal review mechanisms and enhancing the depth of evaluation prior to committing capital.

As we scale our operations, we intend to expand the range of opportunities evaluated while maintaining discipline in execution. Our objective is not to pursue growth for its own sake, but to build a portfolio of lending, investment, and advisory engagements that is aligned with our risk appetite and supports sustainable returns for our stakeholders.

2. Maintain and Expand Long-Term Client Relationships

We believe that long-term client relationships are central to building a resilient and scalable financial services business. Our strategy is to foster relationships based on trust, transparency, and consistent delivery across our lending, investment, and advisory engagements. We focus on understanding our clients' business models, capital requirements, and strategic objectives, rather than approaching engagements as one-time transactions.

Our client base includes corporates, MSMEs, investors, and asset owners, many of whom require ongoing financial support across different stages of their business lifecycle. By engaging with clients over extended periods, we are better positioned to structure solutions that are aligned with their evolving needs, while also improving risk visibility and monitoring.

We intend to deepen existing client relationships by offering a broader range of services across our integrated platform, subject to regulatory considerations. We believe that sustained client engagement supports repeat business, enhances cross-vertical opportunities, and contributes to stable and predictable revenue generation over the long term.

3. Leveraging Technology to Enhance Operational Efficiency and Decision-Making

We recognise the importance of technology in improving operational efficiency, data-driven decision-making, and governance in a financial services environment. Our strategy includes continued investment in information technology systems and digital tools to support research, origination, portfolio monitoring, compliance reporting, and client servicing functions.

We intend to leverage technology to streamline internal processes, improve turnaround times, and enhance consistency in execution across business verticals. As our operations scale, we plan to selectively strengthen our technology infrastructure to support greater data availability, reporting accuracy, and management oversight.

Our focus is on deploying technology in a manner that enhances cost efficiency and operational effectiveness, while supporting risk management and compliance requirements. We also intend to improve the usability and integration of our existing systems to enable informed and timely decision-making across the organisation.

4. Attracting, Retaining, and Developing Human Capital

We believe that our people are a critical driver of our long-term success. Our strategy is to attract, retain, and develop talent across lending, investment, advisory, compliance, and support functions, recognising that execution quality and governance standards are closely linked to the capabilities of our workforce.

We intend to continue offering merit-based compensation structures that are benchmarked to industry practices, with a focus on aligning employee incentives with long-term organisational objectives. In addition, we place emphasis on training and development initiatives to enhance technical expertise, regulatory understanding, and leadership capabilities.

We regularly assess short-term and long-term organisational capability requirements and align our recruitment and training strategies with our evolving business needs. By investing in human capital development, we aim to build a stable and scalable organisation capable of supporting growth across business verticals.

5. Expanding and Strengthening Advisory and Fee-Based Services

We intend to increase the contribution of fee-based income by expanding our advisory and asset services businesses. This includes financial advisory, transaction advisory, asset management support, and real estate advisory services undertaken through our wholly owned subsidiaries.

Our strategy is to leverage advisory capabilities to support clients in areas such as capital structuring, mergers and acquisitions, debt syndication, asset monetisation, and real estate decision-making, subject to applicable regulatory requirements. Advisory services are expected to complement our lending relationships and enhance the overall value proposition offered to clients.

By strengthening fee-based services, we aim to further diversify our revenue profile and reduce reliance on balance-sheet-led income, while maintaining flexibility in capital allocation.

Our registered office is equipped with latest computer systems, relevant software's, uninterrupted power supply, internet connectivity, security and other facilities, which are required for our business operations to function smoothly.

THE SECURITIES MARKET OF INDIA

Our Company is listed on the BSE Limited. The information in this section has been extracted from documents available on the website of SEBI and the BSE and has not been prepared or independently verified by our Company, the Book Running Lead Manager or any of their respective affiliates or advisors.

The Indian Securities Market

India has a long history of organised securities trading. In 1875, the first stock exchange was established in Mumbai. The BSE and the NSE together hold a dominant position among the stock exchanges in terms of the number of listed companies, market capitalisation and trading activity.

Indian Stock Exchanges

Indian stock exchanges are regulated primarily by SEBI, as well as by the Government of India acting through the Ministry of Finance, Capital Markets Division, under the SCRA and the SCRR. On October 3, 2018, SEBI, in exercise of its powers under the SCRA and the SEBI Act, as amended from time to time, notified the Securities Contracts (Regulation) (Stock Exchanges and Clearing Corporations) Regulations, 2018 (the “SCR (SECC) Regulations”), which regulate inter alia the recognition, ownership and internal governance of stock exchanges and clearing corporations in India together with providing for minimum net worth requirements for stock exchanges. The SCRA, the SCRR and the SECC Regulations along with various rules, bye-laws and regulations of the respective stock exchanges, regulate the recognition of stock exchanges, the qualifications for membership thereof and the manner, in which contracts are entered into, settled and enforced between members of the stock exchanges.

The SEBI Act empowers SEBI to regulate the Indian securities markets, including stock exchanges and intermediaries in the capital markets, the interests of investors in securities, promote and monitor self-regulatory organisations and prohibit fraudulent and unfair trade practices. Regulations and guidelines concerning minimum disclosure requirements by listed companies, rules and regulations concerning investor protection, insider trading, substantial acquisitions of shares and takeover of companies, buy-backs of securities, employee stock option schemes, stockbrokers, merchant bankers, underwriters, mutual funds, foreign portfolio investors, credit rating agencies and other capital market participants have been notified by the relevant regulatory authority.

BSE

Established in 1875, it is the oldest stock exchange in India. In 1956, it became the first stock exchange in India to obtain permanent recognition from the Government under the SCRA. Pursuant to the BSE (Corporatization and Demutualization) Scheme 2005 of the SEBI, with effect from August 19, 2005, the BSE was incorporated as a company under the Companies Act, 1956. BSE was listed on NSE with effect from February 3, 2017.

NSE

The NSE was established by financial institutions and banks to provide nationwide online, satellite-linked, screen-based trading facilities with market-makers and electronic clearing and settlement for securities including government securities, debentures, public sector bonds and units. Deliveries for trades executed “on- market” are exchanged through the National Securities Clearing Corporation Limited. It has evolved over the years into its present status as one of the premier stock exchanges of India. The NSE was recognised as a stock exchange under the SCRA in April 1993 and commenced operations in the wholesale debt market segment in June 1994. The capital market (equities) segment commenced operations in November 1994 and operations in the derivatives segment commenced in June 2000. NSE launched the NSE 50 Index, now known as S&P CNX NIFTY, on April 22, 1996 and the Mid-cap Index on January 1, 1996.

Listing and delisting of Securities

The listing of securities on a recognised Indian stock exchange is regulated by the applicable Indian laws including the Companies Act, 2013, the SCRA, the SCRR, the SEBI Act, and various guidelines and regulations issued by SEBI including the SEBI ICDR Regulations SEBI Listing Regulations, as well as pursuant to the Listing agreement. The SCRA empowers the governing body of each recognised stock exchange to suspend trading of or withdraw admission to dealings in a listed security for breach of or non-compliance with any conditions or breach of company’s obligations under the SEBI Listing Regulations or for any reason, subject to the issuer receiving prior written notice of the intent of the exchange and upon granting of a hearing in the matter. SEBI also has the power to amend the SEBI Listing Regulations and bye-laws of the stock exchanges in India, to overrule a stock exchange’s governing body and withdraw recognition of a recognized stock exchange.

SEBI has notified the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Delisting of Equity Shares) Regulations, 2021, as amended (the “Delisting Regulations”) to govern the voluntary and compulsory delisting of equity shares from the stock exchanges.

Following a compulsory delisting of equity shares, a company, its whole-time directors, its promoters, person(s) responsible for ensuring compliance with the securities laws and the companies promoted by any of them cannot directly or indirectly access the securities market or seek listing of any equity shares for a period of 10 years from the date of such delisting. In addition, certain amendments to the SCRR have also been notified in relation to delisting.

Minimum Level of Public Shareholding

Pursuant to an amendment to SCRR in June 2010 and Regulation 38 of SEBI Listing Regulations, all listed companies are required to maintain a minimum public shareholding of 25%. In this regard, SEBI has provided several mechanisms to comply with this requirement. Where the public shareholding in a listed company falls below 25% at any time, such company shall bring the public shareholding to 25% within a maximum period of 12 months from the date of the public shareholding having fallen below the 25% threshold. However, every listed public sector company whose public shareholding falls below 25% at any time after the commencement of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) (Second Amendment) Rules, 2018, shall increase its public shareholding to at least 25%, within a period of two years from the date of such fall, respectively, in the manner specified by SEBI. However, in terms of Rule 19A(6) of the SCRR, the Central Government may, in public interest, exempt any listed entity in which the Central Government or State Government or public sector company, either individually or in any combination with other, hold directly or indirectly, majority of the shares or voting rights or control of such listed entity, from any or all of the provisions of this rule.

Disclosures under the Companies Act, 2013 and Securities Regulations

Under the Companies Act, 2013 a public offering of securities in India must be made by means of a prospectus, which must contain information specified in the Companies Act, 2013, the Companies (Prospectus and Allotment of Securities) Rules, 2014 and the SEBI ICDR Regulations. The prospectus must be filed with the relevant registrar of companies having jurisdiction over the place where a company's registered office is situated. A company's directors and promoters shall be subject to civil and criminal liability for misrepresentation in a prospectus. The Companies Act, 2013 also sets forth procedures for the acceptance of subscriptions and payment of commission rates for the sale of securities. Pursuant to the provisions of the SEBI Act, SEBI has issued detailed guidelines concerning disclosures by public companies and to further investor protection. The SEBI ICDR Regulations permit companies to price their domestic issues of securities in consultation with the lead merchant banker or through the book building process.

Public limited companies are required under the Companies Act, 2013 and other applicable guidelines, to prepare, file with the RoC, and circulate to their shareholders, audited annual accounts which comply with the disclosure requirements under the Companies Act, 2013, and other regulations governing their manner of presentation and which include sections pertaining to corporate governance, related party transactions and the management's discussion and analysis as required under the SEBI Listing Regulations. In addition, a listed company is subject to continuing disclosure requirements pursuant to the terms of the SEBI Listing Regulations. Accordingly, companies are required to publish unaudited financial results (subject to a limited review by the company's auditors) on a quarterly basis and are required to inform stock exchanges immediately regarding any unpublished price sensitive information.

SEBI Listing Regulations

Public listed companies are required under the SEBI Listing Regulations to prepare and circulate to their shareholders audited annual accounts which comply with the disclosure requirements and regulations governing their manner of presentation and which include sections relating to corporate governance, related party transactions and management's discussion and analysis as required under the SEBI Listing Regulations. In addition, a listed company is subject to continuing disclosure requirements pursuant to the terms of the SEBI Listing Regulations.

Index-Based Market-Wide Circuit Breaker System

In order to restrict abnormal price volatility in any particular stock, the SEBI has instructed stock exchanges to apply daily circuit breakers which do not allow transactions beyond a certain level of price volatility. The index-based market-wide circuit breaker system (equity and equity derivatives) applies at three stages of the index movement, at 10%, 15% and 20%. The stock exchanges on a daily basis translate the circuit breaker limits based on previous day's closing level of the index. These circuit breakers, when triggered, bring about a co-ordinated trading halt in all equity and equity derivative markets nationwide. The market-wide circuit breakers are triggered by movement of either the SENSEX of the BSE or the S&P CNX NIFTY of the NSE, whichever is breached earlier.

In addition to the market-wide index-based circuit breakers, there are currently in place individual scrip-wise price bands of up to 20% movements either up or down. However, no price bands are applicable on scrips on which derivative products are available or scrips included in indices on which derivative products are available. The stock exchanges in India can also exercise the power to suspend trading during periods of market volatility. Margin requirements are imposed by stock exchanges that are required to be paid by the stockbrokers.

The stock exchanges in India can also exercise the power to suspend trading during periods of market volatility. Margin requirements are imposed by stock exchanges that are required to be paid by the stockbrokers.

Settlement

The stock exchanges in India operate on a trading day plus one, or T+1 rolling settlement system. At the end of the T+1 period, obligations are settled with buyers of securities paying for and receiving securities, while sellers transfer and receive payment for securities. For example, trades executed on a Monday would typically be settled on a Tuesday. Additionally, SEBI has introduced the beta version of T+0 rolling settlement cycle on optional basis in addition to the existing T+1 settlement cycle for a limited set of 25 scrips and with a limited number of brokers.

Internet-based Securities Trading and Security Trading using Wireless Technology Services

Internet trading takes place through order routing systems, which route client orders to exchange trading systems for execution. Stockbrokers interested in providing this service are required to apply for permission to the relevant stock exchange and also have to comply with certain minimum conditions stipulated by SEBI. The NSE became the first exchange to grant approval to its members for providing internet-based trading services. Internet trading is possible on both the “equities” as well as the “derivatives” segments of the NSE.

Trading Hours

Trading on both the NSE and the BSE occurs from Monday to Friday, between 9:15 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. IST (excluding the 15 minutes pre-open session from 9:00 a.m. to 9:15 a.m.). The BSE and the NSE are closed on public holidays. The recognised stock exchange has been permitted to set their own trading hours (in the cash and derivatives segments) subject to the condition that (i) the trading hours are between 9.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m.; and (ii) the stock exchange has in place a risk management system and infrastructure commensurate to the trading hours.

Trading Procedure

In order to facilitate smooth transactions, the BSE replaced its open outcry system with BSE On-line Trading (the “BOLT”) facility in 1995. This totally automated screen based trading in securities was put into practice nationwide. This has enhanced transparency in dealings and has assisted considerably in smoothening settlement cycles and improving efficiency in back office work. In the year 2014, BSE introduced its new generation trading platform, BOLT Plus.

In order to facilitate smooth transactions, NSE has introduced a fully automated trading system called National Exchange for Automated Trading (“NEAT”), which operates on strict time/price priority besides enabling efficient trade. NEAT has provided depth in the market by enabling a large number of members all over India to trade simultaneously, narrowing the spreads.

Depositories

The Depositories Act, 1996 provides a legal framework for the establishment of depositories to record ownership details and effect transfers in electronic book-entry form. Further, SEBI has framed the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 2018 in relation to, among other things, the formation and registration of such depositories, the registration of participants as well as the rights and obligations of the depositories, participants, companies and beneficial owners.

SEBI Takeover Regulations

Disclosure and mandatory bid obligations for listed Indian companies under Indian law are governed by the specific regulations in relation to substantial acquisition of shares and takeover. Once the equity shares of a company are listed on a stock exchange in India, the provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011 (the “Takeover Regulations”) will apply to any acquisition of the company’s shares/voting rights/control. The Takeover Regulations prescribes certain thresholds or trigger points in the shareholding that a person or entity (along with persons acting in concert with such person or entity) has in the listed Indian company, which give rise to certain obligations on the part of the acquirer. Acquisition of shares or voting rights up to a certain threshold prescribed under the Takeover Regulations mandate specific disclosure requirements, while acquisitions (direct or indirect, along with persons acting in concert with such acquirer) crossing particular thresholds may result in the acquirer having to make an open offer for the shares of the target company. The SEBI Takeover Regulations also provides for the possibility of indirect acquisitions, imposing specific obligations on the acquirer in case of such indirect acquisition. The SEBI Takeover Regulations also provides certain general exemptions which exempt certain acquisitions from the obligation to make an open offer.

SEBI Insider Trading Regulations

The SEBI Insider Trading Regulations have been notified to prohibit and penalise insider trading in India. An insider is, among other things, prohibited from dealing in the securities of a listed company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information (“UPSI”).

The SEBI Insider Trading Regulations were notified on January 15, 2015 and came into effect on May 15, 2015, which repealed the erstwhile regulations of 1992. The SEBI Insider Trading Regulations, inter alia, impose certain restrictions on the communication of information by listed companies. Under the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations, (i) no insider shall communicate, provide or allow access to any UPSI relating to such companies and securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders; and (ii) no person shall procure or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI relating to such companies and securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. However, UPSI may be communicated, provided or allowed access to or procured, under certain circumstances specified in the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations.

The SEBI Insider Trading Regulations make it compulsory for listed companies and certain other entities that are required to handle UPSI in the course of business operations to establish an internal code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of UPSI and to regulate, monitor and report trading by insiders. To this end, the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations provide principles of fair disclosure for purposes of code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of UPSI and minimum standards for code of conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by insiders. There are also initial and continuing shareholding disclosure obligations under the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations.

The SEBI Insider Trading Regulations also provides for disclosure obligations for promoters, members of the promoter group, designated person or director in case value of trade exceeds monetary threshold of ₹10 Lakhs over a calendar quarter, within two days of reaching such threshold. The board of directors of all listed companies are required to formulate and publish on the company’s website a code of procedure for fair disclosure of UPSI along with a code of conduct for its employees for compliance with the SEBI Insider Trading Regulations.

Further, on July 17, 2020, SEBI amended the Insider Trading Regulations to prescribe that the board of directors or head(s) of listed companies shall ensure that a structured digital database be maintained, containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information, the names and details of persons who have shared the information and the names and details person with whom information is shared.

Buy-back

A company may buy-back its shares subject to compliance with the requirements of Section 68 of the Companies Act, 2013, as amended and the SEBI (Buy-back of Securities) Regulations 2018, as amended. Under Section 68 of the Companies Act, 2013, as amended, a company may buy-back its shares out of its free reserves or securities premium account or the proceeds of the issue of any shares or other specified securities, other than proceeds of an earlier issue of the same kind of shares or same kind of other specified securities.

Derivatives (Futures and Options)

Trading in derivatives is governed by the SCRA, the SCRR and the SEBI Act. The SCRA was amended in February 2000 and derivatives contracts were included within the term “securities”, as defined by the SCRA. Trading in derivatives in India takes place either on separate and independent derivatives exchanges or on a separate segment of an existing Stock Exchange. The derivatives exchange or derivatives segment of a Stock Exchange functions as a self-regulatory organisation under the supervision of SEBI.

Dividends

Under the Companies Act, 2013, an Indian company pays dividend upon a recommendation by its board of directors and subject to approval by a majority of the shareholders. Unless the board of directors of a company recommends the payment of a dividend, the shareholders at a general meeting have no power to declare any dividend. Subject to certain conditions laid down by Section 123 of the Companies Act, 2013, no dividend can be declared or paid by a company for any fiscal except, among other things, out of the profits of the company for that year, calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 or out of the profits of the company for any previous fiscal arrived at as laid down by the Companies Act, 2013. Further, under the Companies Act, 2013, a company is not permitted to declare any dividends unless carried over previous losses and depreciation not provided in previous year or years are set off against the profit of the company for the current year.

According to our Articles of Association, our Company in a general meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by our Board. Further, no dividend shall be declared unless carried over previous losses and depreciation not provided in previous years or years are set off against profit of our Company for the current year. Subject to the provisions Section 123 of the Companies Act, 2013, our Board may from time to time pay to the Shareholders such interim as appears to our Board to be justified by the profits of our Company. The Board may, before recommending any dividends, set aside out of the profits of our Company such sums as it thinks fit as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of our Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of our Company may be properly applied, including provision for meeting contingencies or for equalizing dividends and pending such application, may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of our Company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of our Company) as our Board may, from time to time, thinks fit. Our Board may also carry forward any profits which it may consider necessary to divide, without setting them aside as reserves.

Our Board may declare dividends for a financial year out of the profits of our Company for that year arrived at after providing for depreciation in accordance with the provisions of Section 123 (2), or out of the profits of our Company for any previous financial year or years arrived at after providing for depreciation in accordance with the provisions of that sub-section and remaining undistributed, or out of both, provided that in computing profits any amount representing unrealised gains, notional gains or revaluation of assets and any change in carrying amount of an asset or of a liability on measurement of the asset or the liability at fair value shall be excluded; or out of money provided by the Central Government or a State Government for the payment of dividend by our Company in pursuance of a guarantee given by that Government. Further, no dividend shall be declared or paid by our Company from its reserves other than free reserves and our Company shall declare dividend unless carried over previous losses and depreciation not provided in previous year or years are set off against profit of our company for the current year.

Under the Companies Act, 2013, dividends must be paid within 30 days from the date of its declaration. Where our Company has declared dividend, but which has not been paid or claimed within 30 days from the date of declaration, our Company shall, within seven days from the date of expiry of the said period of 30 days, transfer the total amount of the unpaid or unclaimed dividend to the unpaid dividend account. All Equity Shares in respect of which dividend has not been paid or claimed for seven consecutive years or more shall be transferred by our Company in the name of Investor Education and Protection Fund, established by the Central Government.

Issue of Bonus Shares and Capitalization of reserves

In addition to permitting dividends to be paid out of current or retained earnings as described above, the Companies Act permits the board of directors, if so approved by the shareholders in a general meeting, to capitalise its profits or reserves for the purpose of issuing fully paid-up bonus shares, which are similar to stock dividend. The Companies Act permits the issue of fully paid-up bonus shares from its free reserves, securities premium account or capital redemption reserve account, provided that bonus shares shall not be issued by capitalising reserves created by revaluation of assets. These bonus Equity

Shares must be distributed to shareholders in proportion to the number of Equity Shares owned by them as recommended by the board of directors.

Any issue of bonus shares by a listed company would be subject to the SEBI regulations. The relevant SEBI regulations prescribe that no company shall make a bonus issue of Equity Shares if it has outstanding fully or partly convertible debt instruments at the time of making the bonus issue, unless it has made reservation of the Equity Shares in the same class in favour of the holders of the outstanding convertible debt instruments in proportion to the convertible part thereof and the Equity Shares reserved for the holders of fully or partly convertible debt instruments shall be issued at the time of conversion of such convertible debt instruments on the same terms or same proportion on which the bonds were issued. Further, for issuance of such bonus shares, a company should not have defaulted in the payment of interest or principal in respect of fixed deposits and interest on existing debentures or principal on redemption of such debentures. The declaration of bonus shares in lieu of a dividend cannot be made. The bonus issuance shall be made out of free reserves built out of genuine profits or share premium collected in cash only. The reserves created by revaluation of fixed assets cannot be capitalised. Further, a company should have sufficient reason to believe that it has not defaulted in respect of the payment of statutory dues of the employees, such as contributions to provident funds, gratuities and/or bonuses.

The Company in General Meeting may resolve that any moneys, investments or other assets forming part of the undivided profits of the Company standing to the credit of the Reserve Fund, or any Capital Redemption Reserve Account, or in the hands of the Company and available for dividend (or representing premium received on the issue of Equity Shares and standing to the credit of the Shares Premium Account) be capitalized and distributed among such of the shareholders as would be entitled to receive the same if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on the footing that they become entitled thereto as capital and that all or any part of such capitalized fund be applied on behalf of such shareholders in paying up in full either at par or at such premium as the resolution may provide, any unissued shares or debentures or debenture-stock of the Company which shall be distributed accordingly or in or towards payment of the uncalled liability on any issued shares or debentures or debenture-stock and that such distribution or payment shall be accepted by such shareholders in full satisfaction of their interest in the said capitalized sum, provided that a Share Premium Account and a Capital Redemption Reserve Account may, for the purposes of this Article, only be applied in the paying of any unissued shares to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares.

2.2 Basis of Preparation of consolidated financial Statements

The consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with IND AS notified under Section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended from time to time. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the application of fair value measurements required or allowed by relevant IND AS at the end of each reporting period.

The consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary companies have been combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together the book values of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses, after fully eliminating intra-group balances and intra-group transactions resulting in unrealized profits or losses as per Indian Accounting Standard notified by Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006.

Minority Interest in the net assets of consolidated subsidiaries is identified and presented in the Consolidated Balance Sheet separately from liabilities and equity of the Company's shareholders. Minority interest in the net assets of consolidated subsidiaries consists of:

- The amount of equity attributable to minority at the date on which investment in a subsidiary is made; and

In addition, the Group accounts for all amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that associate or joint venture on the same basis as would be required if that associate or joint venture had directly disposed off the related assets or liabilities. When a Group entity transacts with an associate or a joint venture of the Group, profits and losses resulting from the transactions with the associate or joint venture are recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements only to the extent of interest in the associate or joint venture that are not related to the Group.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Lacs, Comparative information has been restated to accord with changes in presentations made in the current year, except where otherwise stated

The accounting policies for some specific items are disclosed in the respective notes to the consolidated financial Statements. Other significant accounting policies and details of significant accounting assumptions and estimates are set out below in Notes.

The consolidated financial statements of the Company are presented as per Schedule III (Division III) to the Act applicable to Non-Banking consolidated financial Companies (NBFCs), as notified by the MCA.

2.3 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company, it can be reliably measured and it is reasonable to expect ultimate collection. Revenue from Operations is recognised in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss on an accrual basis as stated herein below;

Interest Income from consolidated financial assets is recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate ('EIR') to the gross carrying amount of consolidated financial assets, other than credit- Impaired assets and those classified as measured at Fair Value Through Profit of Loss (FVTPL) OR Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI),

Any subsequent changes in the estimation of the future cash flows having impact on EIR are recognised in interest income with the corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the assets.

Other interest income is recognised on a time proportionate basis.

2.4 Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

2.4.1 Current tax

Current tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior years are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities

Current tax is the amount of tax payable on the taxable income for the period as determined in accordance with the applicable tax rates and the provisions of the Income tax Act, 1961.

2.4.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax base used in the computation of taxable profit,

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period. The carrying amount of deferred tax liabilities and assets are reviewed at the end of each reporting period,

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity),

Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or equity: Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if such items relate to taxes an income levied by the same governing tax laws and the Company has a legally enforceable right for such set off.

2.5 Property plant and equipment

A. Initial recognition

Property, plant and equipment are initially recognised at cost together with borrowing cost capitalized for qualifying assets. If any Cost comprises the purchase price and any directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to the location and its working condition for its intended use. Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimate

Subsequent to initial recognition property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated Impairment, if any,

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is portable that the future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably, The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Derecognition

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in IND AS 115.

Notes forming part of the unaudited consolidated financial statements for the period ended 30 September 2025

Depreciation

Depreciation commences when the assets are ready for their intended use. It is recognised to write down the cost of the property, plant and equipment to their residual value over their useful lives, using the written down value basis. The estimated use lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

The Company has adopted the useful life as specified in Schedule III to the Act.

2.6 Provisions,Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognised when the company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event. It is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

A provision for onerous contracts is recognised when the expected benefits to be derived by the company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable cost of meeting its obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of continuing with the contract.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset, if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

In case of litigations, provision is recognised once it has been established that the company has a present obligation based on information available up to the date on which the Company's consolidated financial statements are finalised and may in some cases entail seeking expert advice the determination on whether there is a present obligation.

Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. The Company does not recognise contingent liability but discloses its existence in the consolidated financial statements.

Contingent Assets

Contingent assets are not recognised in the consolidated financial statements, but are disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

2.7 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise of cash on hand, balances with banks, cheques on hand, remittances in transit and short-term investments with an ordinal maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.8 consolidated financial instruments

Classification of consolidated financial Instruments

The Company classifies its consolidated financial into the following measurement categories:

1. Consolidated financial assets to be measured at amortised cost
2. Consolidated financial assets to be measured at fair value through other comprehensive income
3. Consolidated financial assets to be measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The classification depends on these contractual terms of the consolidated financial asset cash flows and the Company's business model for managing consolidated financial assets which are explained below

2.9 Business model assessment

The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios.

2.10 The Solely Payments of Principal and Interest (SPPI) test

As a second step of its classification process the Company assesses the contractual terms of consolidated financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

"Principal" for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the consolidated financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the consolidated financial asset (for example, if there is repayment of principal or amortisation of the (premium/discount)).

Notes forming part of the unaudited consolidated financial statements for the period ended 30 September 2025

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are SPPI, The Company considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the consolidated financial assets contain a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual Cash flows such that it would not meet this condition.

The Company classifies its consolidated financial liabilities as amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

Consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities are recognised when the entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Initial Measurement of consolidated financial Instruments:

Consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities (other than consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the consolidated financial assets or consolidated financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of consolidated financial assets or consolidated financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Subsequent Measurement:

Consolidated Financial Assets

A consolidated financial asset is measured at amortised cost, if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the consolidated financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.12 Consolidated financial Assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive (FVTOCI)

A consolidated financial asset is measured at FVTOCI, if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling consolidated financial assets and the contractual terms of the consolidated financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.13 Consolidated financial Assets at fair value through Profit & Loss (FVTPL)

Consolidated financial assets at FVTPL include consolidated financial assets held for trading and consolidated financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at FVTPL. If the credit risk on the consolidated financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Company measures the loss allowance for that consolidated financial instrument at an amount equal to 12 month ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition. 12 month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a consolidated financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

When determining whether credit risk of a consolidated financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating expected credit losses, the Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, including on historical experience and forwardlooking information.

2.4.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the standalone financial statements and the corresponding tax base used in the computation of taxable profit,

2.5 Property plant and equipment

A. Initial recognition

Property, plant and equipment are initially recognised at cost together with borrowing cost capitalized for qualifying assets. If any Cost comprises the purchase price and any directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to the location and its working condition for its intended use. Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimate

Subsequent to initial recognition property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated Impairment, if any,

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is portable that the future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably, The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Derecognition

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the next disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in IND AS 115.

Depreciation

Depreciation commences when the assets are ready for their intended use. It is recognised to write down the cost of the property, plant and equipment to their residual value over their useful lives, using the written down value basis. The estimated use lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Notes forming part of the Unaudited standalone financial statements for the period ended 30 September 2025

2.6 Provisions,Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognised when the company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event. It is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

A provision for onerous contracts is recognised when the expected benefits to be derived by the Company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable cost of meeting its obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of continuing with the contract.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset, if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

In case of litigations, provision is recognised once it has been established that the company has a present obligation based on Information available up to the date on which the Company's financial statements are finalised and may in the some cases entail seeking expert advice the determination on whether there is a present obligation.

Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation Company does not recognised contingent liability but disclose its existence in the financial statements.

Contingent Assets

Contingent assets are not recognised in the financial statements, but are disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits probable.

2.7 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise of cash on hand, balances with banks, cheques on hand, remittances in transit and short-term Investments with an ordinal maturity or three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.8 Financial instruments

Classification of financial Instruments

The Company Classifies it's financial into the following measurement categories:

- 1 Financial assets to be measured at amortised cost
2. Financial assets to be measured at fair value through other comprehensive income
3. Financial assets to be measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The classification depends on these contractual terms of the financial asset cash flows and the Company's business model for managing financial assets which are explained below

2.9 Business model assessment

The Company determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios.

Notes forming part of the Unaudited standalone financial statements for the period ended 30 September 2025

2.10 The Solely Payments of Principal and Interest (SPPI) test

As a second step of its classification process the Company assesses the contractual terms of financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

"Principal" for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the financial asset (for example, if there is repayment of principal or amortisation of the (premium/ discount).

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are SPPI, The Company considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the financial assets contain a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual Cash flows such that it would not meet this condition.

The Company classifies its financial liabilities as amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

2.11 Recognition of Financial instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Initial Measurement of Financial Instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Subsequent Measurement:

Financial Assets

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost, if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.12 Financial Assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive (FVTOCI)

A financial asset is measured at FVTOCI, if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows, that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.13 Financial Assets at fair value through Profit & Loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets FVTPL include financial assets held for trading and financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at FVTPL. A financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt Instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if such designation eliminates significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise measuring assets or liabilities or recognise the Profits and losses on them on different bases.

2.14 Effective interest Rate (EIR) Method:

EIR is a method of calculating the amortised cost at allocating interest income or expenses over the relevant period.

The EIR for financial assets or financial liability is computed

- At the rate that exactly counts estimated future cash receipts or payment through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset or to the amortised cost of a financial liability on initial recognition.
- By considering contractual terms of the financial Instrument in estimating the cash flows.
- Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and all other premium or discount.

Notes forming part of the Unaudited standalone financial statements for the period ended 30 September 2025

2.15 Derecognise of Financial Assets.

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the rewards of ownership of the asset to another party,

On derecognition of a financial asset accounted under Ind AS 109 in its entirety

a) for financial assets measured at amortised cost the gain or loss in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

b) for financial assets measured at a value through other comprehensive income the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves are reclassified to the statement of Profit and Loss unless the asset represents an equity investment in which case the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves may be reclassified within Equity.

If the transferred asset is part of a larger financial asset and the part transferred qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the previous carrying amount of the larger financial asset shall be allotted between the part that continues to be recognised and the part that is derecognised, on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts of the date of the transfer.

If the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset it recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay.

If the Company transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, it continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a liability for the proceeds received.

2.16 Financial Liabilities & Equity Instruments

Classification of debt or equity financial instruments and equity instruments, issued are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definition of financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity Instruments

An equity instrument is a contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Repurchase of the Company's own equity instrument is recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in the statement of Profit and Loss on the purchase sale; ISSUE or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

Financial Liabilities

The Company classifies all financial instruments as subsequently measured at amortised cost, except for financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender in substantially different terms; or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.17 Off-setting of financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the Balance Sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.18 Earnings Per Share ("EPS")

Basic EPS share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend, If any, attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless they have been lived eta later date. In computing the dilutive comings per shares, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduces the Earnings per share or increases lose the share are included .

2.19 Significant accounting judgements estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an Ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting, estimates are recognized in the period in what the estimates are revised and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods.

In particular information about significant areas of estimation uncertainty and critical judgements in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements included in the following notes

2.20 Impairment of financial instruments

Equity instruments are not subject to impairment under Ind AS 109.

The Company recognises lifetime expected credit losses (ECL) when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and when the financial instrument is credit impaired. If the credit risk on the financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Company measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12 month ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition. 12 month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

When determining whether credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating expected credit losses, the Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, including on historical experience and forwardlooking information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”) in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Group as at 31 March 2025 and consolidated profit including other comprehensive income, the changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined that there are no key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Information Other than the Consolidated Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Holding Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Group's annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Group's annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Group's annual report, If we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matters to those charged with governance and take necessary actions, as applicable under the relevant law and regulations.

Management's and Board of Director's Responsibilities for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, consolidated financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flow of the Group accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in India, including Indian Accounting Standards (IND AS) prescribed under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate of accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective management and Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for assessing the respective company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless respective management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the Companies included in the Group are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Consolidated IND AS Financial Statement

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the holding company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of consolidated financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2025

Independent Auditor’s Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to the Consolidated Financial Statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) (“the Holding Company”), its subsidiary companies and associate entities, as at and for the year 31 March 2025, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Company on that date.

Responsibilities of Management for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (“ICAI”) and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the Internal financial controls over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of Internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of Internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the other matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting with Reference to these Consolidated Financial Statements

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting with Reference to these Consolidated Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of Internal Financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected, Also projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements to future period are subject to the risk that Internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, have, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls systems over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements and such internal financial controls systems over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements were operating effectively as at 31 March 2025, based on internal financial controls systems over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of internal financial controls systems over financial reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Other Matters

Our report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company, insofar as it relates to two subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such subsidiaries, incorporated in India.

2.5 Property plant and equipment

A. Initial recognition

Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimate

Subsequent to initial recognition property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated Impairment, if any,

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is portable that the future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably, The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Derecognition

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the next disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in IND AS 115.

Depreciation

Depreciation commences when the assets are ready for their intended use. It is recognised to write down the cost of the property, plant and equipment to their residual value over their useful lives, using the written down value basis. The estimated use lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

The Company has adopted the useful life as specified in Schedule III to the Act.

2.6 Provisions,Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognised when the company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event. It is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

A provision for onerous contracts is recognised when the expected benefits to be derived by the Company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable cost of meeting its obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of continuing with the contract.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset, if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

In case of litigations, provision is recognised once it has been established that the company has a present obligation based on Information available up to the date on which the Company's consolidated financial statements are finalised and may in the some cases entail seeking expert advice the determination on whether there is a present obligation.

Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation Company does not recognised contingent liability but disclose its existence in the consolidated financial statements.

Contingent Assets

Contingent assets are not recognised in the consolidated financial statements, but are disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits probable

2.7 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise of cash on hand, balances with banks, cheques on hand, remittances in transit and short-term Investments with an ordinal maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.8 consolidated financial instruments

Classification of consolidated financial Instruments

The Company Classifies it's consolidated financial into the following measurement categories:

- 1 Consolidated financial assets to be measured at amortised cost
2. Consolidated financial assets to be measured at fair value through other comprehensive income
3. Consolidated financial assets to be measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The classification depends on these contractual terms of the consolidated financial asset cash flows and the Company's business model for managing consolidated financial assets which are explained below

2.9 Business model assessment

The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios.

2.10 The Solely Payments of Principal and Interest (SPPI) test

As a second step of its classification process the Company assesses the contractual terms of consolidated financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

"Principal" for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the consolidated financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the consolidated financial asset (for example, if there is repayment of principal or amortisation of the (premium/ discount).

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are SPPI, The Company considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the consolidated financial assets contain a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual Cash flows such that it would not meet this condition.

The Company classifies its consolidated financial liabilities as amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

Consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities are recognised when entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Initial Measurement of consolidated financial Instruments:

Consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities (other than consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the consolidated financial assets or consolidated financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of consolidated financial assets or consolidated financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Subsequent Measurement:

Consolidated Financial Assets

A consolidated financial asset is measured at amortised cost, if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the consolidated financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.12 Consolidated financial Assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive (FVTOCI)

A consolidated financial asset is measured at FVTOCI, if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling consolidated financial assets and the contractual terms of the consolidated financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows, that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.13 Consolidated financial Assets at fair value through Profit & Loss (FVTPL)

Consolidated financial assets FVTPL include consolidated financial assets held for trading and consolidated financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at FVTPL. A consolidated financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt Instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if such designation eliminates significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise measuring assets or liabilities or recognise the Profits and losses on them on different bases.

2.14 Effective interest Rate (EIR) Method:

EIR is a method of calculating the amortised cost at allocating interest income or expenses over the relevant period.

The EIR for consolidated financial assets or consolidated financial liability is computed

- a) At the rate that exactly counts estimated future cash receipts or payment through the expected life of the consolidated financial asset or consolidated financial liability to the gross carrying amount of a consolidated financial asset or to the amortised cost of a consolidated financial liability on initial recognition.
- b) By considering contractual terms of the consolidated financial Instrument in estimating the cash flows.
- c) Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and all other premium or discount.

2.15 Derecognise of consolidated financial Assets.

The Company derecognises a consolidated financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the consolidated financial asset and substantially with and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party. On derecognition of a consolidated financial asset accounted under Ind AS 109 in its entity

- a) for consolidated financial assets measured at amortised cost the gain or loss in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.
- b) for consolidated financial assets measured at a value through other comprehensive income the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves reclassified to the consolidated statement at Profit and Loss unless the asset represents an equity investment in which case the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves may be reclassified within Equity.

If the transferred asset is part of a larger consolidated financial asset and the part transferred qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the previous carrying amount of the larger consolidated financial asset shall be allotted between the part that continues to be recognised and the part that is derecognised, on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts of the date of the transfer.

If the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards at ownership and continues to control the transferred asset it recognises its retained interest in the assets and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay.

If the Company transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred consolidated financial asset, it continues to recognise the consolidated financial assets and also recognises a liability for the proceeds received.

2.16 Consolidated financial Liabilities & Equity Instruments

Classification of a debt or equity consolidated financial liabilities and equity Instruments, issued are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definition of financial liability and an equity instrument.

An equity instrument is contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Repurchase of the Company's own equity instrument recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in the statement of Profit and Loss on the purchase sale; ISSUE or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

Consolidated financial Liabilities

The Company classifies all consolidated financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost, except for consolidated financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

Derecognition of consolidated financial liabilities

A consolidated financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing consolidated financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender in substantially different terms; or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the consolidated financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.17 Off-setting of consolidated financial instruments

Consolidated financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the Balance Sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.18 Earnings Per Share ("EPS")

Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend, if any, attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless they have been lived at a later date. In computing the dilutive earnings per share, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduce the earnings per share or increase the loss per share are included.

2.19 Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods.

In particular, information about significant areas of estimation uncertainty and critical judgements in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements is included in the following notes:

2.20 Impairment of consolidated financial instruments

Equity instruments are not subject to impairment under Ind AS 109.

The Company recognises lifetime expected credit losses (ECL) when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and when the consolidated financial instrument is credit impaired. If the credit risk on the consolidated financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Company measures the loss allowance for that consolidated financial instrument at an amount equal to 12-month ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition. 12-month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a consolidated financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

When determining whether credit risk of a consolidated financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating expected credit losses, the Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, including on historical experience and forward-looking information.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

II. Opinion

We have audited the accompanying standalone financial statements of Credent Global Finance Limited (Formerly Known as Oracle Credit Limited) ("the Company") which comprises the Balance Sheet as at 31 March 2025, the Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), Statement of Changes in Equity and Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the standalone financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March 2025 and profit, total comprehensive income, the changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

III. Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the Standalone Financial Statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined that there are no key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

IV. Information Other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Company's annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the Company's annual report, If we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matters to those charged with governance and take necessary actions, as applicable under the relevant law and regulations.

V. Management's and Board of Director's Responsibilities for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in India, including Indian Accounting Standards (IND AS) prescribed under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate of accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, the management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

VI. Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Standalone IND AS Financial Statement

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of standalone financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the standalone financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2025

Independent Auditor’s Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to the Standalone Financial Statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

In conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of Credent Global Finance Limited (“the Company”) as at and for the year 31 March 2025, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Company on that date.

Responsibilities of Management for Internal Financial Controls

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (“ICAI”) and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the Internal financial controls over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of Internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of Internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s Internal financial controls over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of Internal Financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected, Also projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future period are subject to the risk that Internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls systems over financial reporting and such internal financial controls systems over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2025, based on internal financial controls systems over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of internal financial controls systems over financial reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

2.3 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company, it can be reliably measured and it is reasonable to expect ultimate collection.

Revenue from Operations is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss on an accrual basis as stated herein below;

Interest Income from financial assets is recognised by applying the Effective Interest Rate ('EIR') to the gross carrying amount of Financial assets, other than credit- Impaired assets and those classified as measured at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL) OR Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI),

Any subsequent changes in the estimation of the future cash flows having impact on EIR are recognised in interest income with the corresponding adjustment to the carrying amount of the assets.

Other interest income is recognised on a time proportionate basis.

2.4 Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

2.4.1 Current tax

Current tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior years are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities

Current tax is the amount of tax payable on the taxable income for the period as determined in accordance with the applicable tax rates and the provisions of the Income tax Act, 1961.

2.4.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the standalone financial statements and the corresponding tax base used in the computation of taxable profit,

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period. The carrying amount of deferred tax liabilities and assets are reviewed at the end of each reporting period,

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity),

Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or equity: Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if such items relate to taxes an income levied by the same governing tax laws and the Company has a legally enforceable right for such set off.

2.5 Property plant and equipment

A. Initial recognition

Property, plant and equipment are initially recognised at cost together with borrowing cost capitalized for qualifying assets. If any Cost comprises the purchase price and any directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to the location and its working condition for its intended use. Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimate

Subsequent to initial recognition property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated Impairment, if any,

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is portable that the future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably, The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Derecognition

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in IND AS 115.

Depreciation

Depreciation commences when the assets are ready for their intended use. It is recognised to write down the cost of the property, plant and equipment to their residual value over their useful lives, using the written down value basis. The estimated use lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

The Company has adopted the useful life as specified in Schedule III to the Act.

2.6 Provisions,Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognised when the company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event. It is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

A provision for onerous contracts is recognised when the expected benefits to be derived by the Company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable cost of meeting its obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of continuing with the contract.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset, if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

In case of litigations, provision is recognised once it has been established that the company has a present obligation based on Information available up to the date on which the Company's financial statements are finalised and may in the some cases entail seeking expert advice the determination on whether there is a present obligation.

Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation Company does not recognised contingent liability but disclose its existence in the financial statements.

Contingent Assets

Contingent assets are not recognised in the financial statements, but are disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits probable.

2.7 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise of cash on hand, balances with banks, cheques on hand, remittances in transit and short-term Investments with an ordinal maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.8 Financial instruments

Classification of financial Instruments

The Company Classifies it's financial into the following measurement categories:

- 1 Financial assets to be measured at amortised cost
2. Financial assets to be measured at fair value through other comprehensive income
3. Financial assets to be measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The classification depends on these contractual terms of the financial asset cash flows and the Company's business model for managing financial assets which are explained below

2.9 Business model assessment

The Company determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios.

2.10 The Solely Payments of Principal and Interest (SPPI) test

As a second step of its classification process the Company assesses the contractual terms of financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

"Principal" for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the financial asset (for example, if there is repayment of principal or amortisation of the (premium/ discount).

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are SPPI, The Company considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the financial assets contain a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual Cash flows such that it would not meet this condition.

The Company classifies its financial liabilities as amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

2.11 Recognition of Financial instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Initial Measurement of Financial Instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Subsequent Measurement:

Financial Assets

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost, if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.12 Financial Assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive (FVTOCI)

A financial asset is measured at FVTOCI, if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows, that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.13 Financial Assets at fair value through Profit & Loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets FVTPL include financial assets held for trading and financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at FVTPL. A financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt Instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if such designation eliminates significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the Profits and losses on them on different bases.

2.14 Effective interest Rate (EIR) Method:

EIR is a method of calculating the amortised cost at allocating interest income or expenses over the relevant period.

The EIR for financial assets or financial liability is computed

- a) At the rate that exactly counts estimated future cash receipts or payment through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset or to the amortised cost of a financial liability on initial recognition.
- b) By considering contractual terms of the financial Instrument in estimating the cash flows.
- c) Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and all other premium or discount.

2.15 Derecognise of Financial Assets.

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the rewards and risks of ownership of the asset to another party,

On derecognition of a financial asset accounted under Ind AS 109 in its entirety

- a) for financial assets measured at amortised cost the gain or loss in the Statement of Profit and Loss.
- b) for financial Assets measured at a value through other comprehensive income the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves reclassified to the statement of Profit and Loss unless the asset represents an equity investment in which case the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves may be reclassified within Equity.

If the transferred asset is part of a larger financial asset and the part transferred qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the previous carrying amount of the larger financial asset shall be allotted between the part that continues to be recognised and the part that is derecognised, on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts of the date of the transfer.

If the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards at ownership and continues to control the transferred asset it recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay.

If the Company transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, it continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a liability for the proceeds received.

2.16 Financial Liabilities & Equity Instruments

Classification of debt or equity financial liabilities and equity Instruments, issued are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definition of financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity Instruments

An equity instrument is a contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Repurchase of the Company's own equity instrument is recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in the statement of Profit and Loss on the purchase sale; ISSUE or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

Financial Liabilities

The Company classifies all financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost, except for financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender in substantially different terms; or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.17 Off-setting of financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the Balance Sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.18 Earnings Per Share ("EPS")

Basic EPS share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend, If any, attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless they have been lived eta later date. In computing the dilutive comings per shares, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduces the Earnings per share or increases lose the share are included .

2.19 Significant accounting judgements estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an Ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting, estimates are recognized in the period in what the estimates are revised and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods.

In particular information about significant areas of estimation uncertainty and critical judgements in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements included in the following notes

Equity instruments are not subject to impairment under Ind AS 109.

The Company recognises lifetime expected credit losses (ECL) when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and when the financial instrument is credit impaired. If the credit risk on the financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Company measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12 month ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition. 12 month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

When determining whether credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating expected credit losses, the Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, including on historical experience and forwardlooking information.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Information Other than the Consolidated Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Holding Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Group's annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Group's annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Consolidated IND AS Financial Statement

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the holding company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of consolidated financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2024

Independent Auditor’s Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to the Consolidated Financial Statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) (“the Holding Company”), its subsidiary companies and associate entities, as at and for the year 31 March 2024, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Company on that date.

Responsibilities of Management for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (“ICAI”) and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the Internal financial controls over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of Internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of Internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the other matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2024

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting with Reference to these Consolidated Financial Statements

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting with Reference to these Consolidated Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of Internal Financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected, Also projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements to future period are subject to the risk that Internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, have, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls systems over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements and such internal financial controls systems over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements were operating effectively as at 31 March 2024, based on internal financial controls systems over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of internal financial controls systems over financial reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Other Matters

Our report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company, insofar as it relates to two subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such subsidiaries, incorporated in India.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Credent Global Finance Limited
(Formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited)
Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Management's and Board of Director's Responsibilities for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in India, including Indian Accounting Standards (IND AS) prescribed under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate of accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, the management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Standalone IND AS Financial Statement

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Credent Global Finance Limited
(Formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited)
Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of standalone financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the standalone financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2024

Independent Auditor’s Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to the Standalone Financial Statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

In conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of Credent Global Finance Limited (“the Company”) as at and for the year 31 March 2024, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Company on that date.

Responsibilities of Management for Internal Financial Controls

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (“ICAI”) and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the Internal financial controls over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of Internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of Internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s Internal financial controls over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the standalone financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2024

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of Internal Financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected, Also projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future period are subject to the risk that Internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls systems over financial reporting and such internal financial controls systems over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2024, based on internal financial controls systems over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of internal financial controls systems over financial reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in IND AS 115.

Depreciation

Depreciation commences when the assets are ready for their intended use. It is recognised to write down the cost of the property, plant and equipment to their residual value over their useful lives, using the written down value basis. The estimated use lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

The Company has adopted the useful life as specified in Schedule III to the Act.

2.6 Provisions,Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognised when the company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event. It is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

A provision for onerous contracts is recognised when the expected benefits to be derived by the Company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable cost of meeting its obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of continuing with the contract.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset, if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

In case of litigations, provision is recognised once it has been established that the company has a present obligation based on Information available up to the date on which the Company's financial statements are finalised and may in the some cases entail seeking expert advice the determination on whether there is a present obligation.

Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation Company does not recognised contingent liability but disclose its existence in the financial statements.

Contingent Assets

Contingent assets are not recognised in the financial statements, but are disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits probable.

2.7 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise of cash on hand, balances with banks, cheques on hand, remittances in transit and short-term Investments with an ordinal maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.8 Financial instruments

Classification of financial Instruments

The Company Classifies it's financial into the following measurement categories:

- 1 Financial assets to be measured at amortised cost
2. Financial assets to be measured at fair value through other comprehensive income
3. Financial assets to be measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The classification depends on these contractual terms of the financial asset cash flows and the Company's business model for managing financial assets which are explained below

2.9 Business model assessment

The Company determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios.

2.10 The Solely Payments of Principal and Interest (SPPI) test

As a second step of its classification process the Company assesses the contractual terms of financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

"Principal" for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the financial asset (for example, if there is repayment of principal or amortisation of the (premium/ discount).

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are SPPI, The Company considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the financial assets contain a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual Cash flows such that it would not meet this condition.

The Company classifies its financial liabilities as amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

2.11 Recognition of Financial instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Initial Measurement of Financial Instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Subsequent Measurement:

Financial Assets

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost, if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.12 Financial Assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive (FVTOCI)

A financial asset is measured at FVTOCI, if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows, that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.13 Financial Assets at fair value through Profit & Loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets FVTPL include financial assets held for trading and financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at FVTPL. A financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt Instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if such designation eliminates significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the Profits and losses on them on different bases.

2.14 Effective interest Rate (EIR) Method:

EIR is a method of calculating the amortised cost at allocating interest income or expenses over the relevant period.

The EIR for financial assets or financial liability is computed

- a) At the rate that exactly counts estimated future cash receipts or payment through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset or to the amortised cost of a financial liability on initial recognition.
- b) By considering contractual terms of the financial Instrument in estimating the cash flows.
- c) Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and all other premium or discount.

2.15 Derecognise of Financial Assets.

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the rewards and risks of ownership of the asset to another party,

On derecognition of a financial asset accounted under Ind AS 109 in its entirety

- a) for financial assets measured at amortised cost the gain or loss in the Statement of Profit and Loss.
- b) for financial assets measured at a value through other comprehensive income the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves reclassified to the statement of Profit and Loss unless the asset represents an equity investment in which case the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves may be reclassified within Equity.

If the transferred asset is part of a larger financial asset and the part transferred qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the previous carrying amount of the larger financial asset shall be allotted between the part that continues to be recognised and the part that is derecognised, on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts of the date of the transfer.

If the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards at ownership and continues to control the transferred asset it recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay.

If the Company transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, it continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a liability for the proceeds received.

2.16 Financial Liabilities & Equity Instruments

Classification of debt or equity financial liabilities and equity instruments, issued are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definition of financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity Instruments

An equity instrument is a contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Repurchase of the Company's own equity instrument is recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in the statement of Profit and Loss on the purchase sale; issue or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

Financial Liabilities

The Company classifies all financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost, except for financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender in substantially different terms; or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.17 Off-setting of financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the Balance Sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.18 Earnings Per Share ("EPS")

Basic EPS share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend, If any, attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless they have been lived eta later date. In computing the dilutive comings per shares, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduces the Earnings per share or increases lose the share are included .

2.19 Significant accounting judgements estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an Ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting, estimates are recognized in the period in what the estimates are revised and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods.

In particular information about significant areas of estimation uncertainty and critical judgements in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements included in the following notes

Equity instruments are not subject to impairment under Ind AS 109.

The Company recognises lifetime expected credit losses (ECL) when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and when the financial instrument is credit impaired. If the credit risk on the financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Company measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12 month ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition. 12 month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

When determining whether credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating expected credit losses, the Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, including on historical experience and forwardlooking information.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Credent Global Finance Limited
(Formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited)
Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the holding company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of consolidated financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2023

Independent Auditor’s Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to the Consolidated Financial Statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) (“the Holding Company”), its subsidiary companies and associate entities, as at and for the year 31 March 2023, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Company on that date.

Responsibilities of Management for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (“ICAI”) and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the Internal financial controls over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of Internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of Internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the other matters paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting with Reference to these Consolidated Financial Statements

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2023

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting with Reference to these Consolidated Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of Internal Financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected, Also projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements to future period are subject to the risk that Internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, have, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls systems over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements and such internal financial controls systems over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements were operating effectively as at 31 March 2023, based on internal financial controls systems over financial reporting criteria established by the Holding Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of internal financial controls systems over financial reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Other Matters

Our report under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls over financial reporting with reference to these consolidated financial statements of the Holding Company, insofar as it relates to two subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such subsidiaries, incorporated in India.

In addition, the Group accounts for all amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that associate or joint venture on the same basis as would be required if that associate or joint venture had directly disposed off the related assets or liabilities. Subsequent to initial recognition property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated Impairment, if any,

Derecognition

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the next disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. The Company has adopted the useful life as specified in Schedule III to the Act.

2.6 Provisions,Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognised when the company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event. It is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

A provision for onerous contracts is recognised when the expected benefits to be derived by the Company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable cost of meeting its obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of continuing with the contract.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset, if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

In case of litigations, provision is recognised once it has been established that the company has a present obligation based on Information available up to the date on which the Company's consolidated financial statements are finalised and may in some cases entail seeking expert advice the determination on whether there is a present obligation.

Contingent Liabilities

1. Consolidated financial assets to be measured at amortised cost
2. Consolidated financial assets to be measured at fair value through other comprehensive income
3. Consolidated financial assets to be measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The classification depends on these contractual terms of the consolidated financial asset cash flows and the Company's business model for managing consolidated financial assets which are explained below

2.9 Business model assessment

The Company determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of consolidated financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios.

2.10 The Solely Payments of Principal and Interest (SPPI) test

As a second step of its classification process the Company assesses the contractual terms of consolidated financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

"Principal" for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the consolidated financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the consolidated financial asset (for example, if there is repayment of principal or amortisation of the (premium/ discount).

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are SPPI, The Company considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the consolidated financial assets contain a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual Cash flows such that it would not meet this condition.

The Company classifies its consolidated financial liabilities as amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

2.11 Recognition of consolidated financial instruments:

Consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities are recognised when entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Initial Measurement of consolidated financial Instruments:

Consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities (other than consolidated financial assets and consolidated financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the consolidated financial assets or consolidated financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of consolidated financial assets or consolidated financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Subsequent Measurement:

Consolidated Financial Assets

A consolidated financial asset is measured at amortised cost, if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the consolidated financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.12 Consolidated financial Assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive (FVTOCI)

A consolidated financial asset is measured at FVTOCI, if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling consolidated financial assets and the contractual terms of the consolidated financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows, that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.13 Consolidated financial Assets at fair value through Profit & Loss (FVTPL)

Consolidated financial assets FVTPL include consolidated financial assets held for trading and consolidated financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at FVTPL. A consolidated financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt Instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if such designation eliminates significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise measuring assets or liabilities or recognise the Profits and losses on them on different bases.

2.14 Effective interest Rate (EIR) Method:

EIR is a method of calculating the amortised cost at allocating interest income or expenses over the relevant period.

The EIR for consolidated financial assets or consolidated financial liability is computed

- a) At the rate that exactly counts estimated future cash receipts or payment through the expected life of the consolidated financial asset or consolidated financial liability to the gross carrying amount of a consolidated financial asset or to the amortised cost of a consolidated financial liability on initial recognition.
- b) By considering contractual terms of the consolidated financial Instrument in estimating the cash flows.
- c) Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and all other premium or discount.

2.15 Derecognition of consolidated financial Assets.

The Company derecognises a consolidated financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the consolidated financial asset and substantially all with and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party. On derecognition of a consolidated financial asset accounted under Ind AS 109 in its entity

- a) for consolidated financial assets measured at amortised cost the gain or loss in the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

- b) for consolidated financial assets measured at a value through other comprehensive income the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves are reclassified to the consolidated statement of Profit and Loss unless the asset represents an equity investment in which case the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves may be reclassified within Equity.

If the transferred assets is part of a larger consolidated financial asset and the part transferred qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the previous carrying amount of the larger consolidated financial asset shall be allotted between the part that continues to be recognised and the part that is derecognised, on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts of the date of the transfer.

If the Company neither transfer nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards at ownership and continues to control the transferred asset it recognises its retained interest in the assets and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay.

If the Company as substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred consolidated financial asset, it continues to recognise the consolidated financial assets and also recognises a liability for the proceeds received.

In computing the dilutive comings per shares, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduces the Earnings per share or increases lose the share are included .

2.19 Significant accounting judgements estimates and assumptions

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an Ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting, estimates are recognized in the period in what the estimates are revised and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods.

2.20 Impairment of consolidated financial instruments

Equity instruments are not subject to impairment under Ind AS 109.

The Company recognises lifetime expected credit losses (ECL) when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and when the consolidated financial instrument is credit impaired. If the credit risk on the consolidated financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Company measures the loss allowance for that consolidated financial instrument at an amount equal to 12 month ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition. 12 month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a consolidated financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

When determining whether credit risk of a consolidated financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating expected credit losses, the Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, including on historical experience and forwardlooking information.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Credent Global Finance Limited

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of standalone financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the standalone financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2023

Independent Auditor’s Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to the Standalone Financial Statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

In conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of Oracle Credit Limited (“the Company”) as at and for the year 31 March 2023, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Company on that date.

Responsibilities of Management for Internal Financial Controls

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company, considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (“ICAI”) and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the Internal financial controls over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of Internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of Internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s Internal financial controls over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Annexure B referred to in Paragraph 2 clause (f) under “Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements” section of the Independent Auditor’s Report of even date to the members of Credent Global Finance Limited (formerly known as Oracle Credit Limited) on the standalone financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2023

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of Internal Financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected, Also projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future period are subject to the risk that Internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls systems over financial reporting and such internal financial controls systems over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2023, based on internal financial controls systems over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of internal financial controls systems over financial reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

2.4.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the standalone financial statements and the corresponding tax base used in the computation of taxable profit,

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period. 2.5 Property plant and equipment

A. Initial recognition

Property, plant and equipment are initially recognised at cost together with borrowing cost capitalized for qualifying assets. If any Cost comprises the purchase price and any directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to the location and its working condition for its intended use. Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimate

Subsequent to initial recognition property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated Impairment, if any,

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is portable that the future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably, The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Derecognition

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item in accordance with the requirements for determining when a performance obligation is satisfied in IND AS 115.

Depreciation

Depreciation commences when the assets are ready for their intended use. It is recognised to write down the cost of the property, plant and equipment to their residual value over their useful lives, using the written down value basis. Notes forming part of the Standalone financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2023

2.6 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions are recognised when the company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event. It is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, when appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

A provision for onerous contracts is recognised when the expected benefits to be derived by the Company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable cost of meeting its obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at the present value of the lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of continuing with the contract.

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset, if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

In case of litigations, provision is recognised once it has been established that the company has a present obligation based on Information available up to the date on which the Company's financial statements are finalised and may in the some cases entail seeking expert advice the determination on whether there is a present obligation.

Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognised because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation Company does not recognise contingent liability but disclose its existence in the financial statements.

Contingent Assets

Contingent assets are not recognised in the financial statements, but are disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits probable.

2.7 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise of cash on hand, balances with banks, cheques on hand, remittances in transit and short-term Investments with an ordinal maturity or three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.8 Financial instruments

Classification of financial Instruments

The Company Classifies its financial into the following measurement categories:

- 1 Financial assets to be measured at amortised cost
2. Financial assets to be measured at fair value through other comprehensive income
3. Financial assets to be measured at fair value through profit or loss.

The classification depends on these contractual terms of the financial asset cash flows and the Company's business model for managing financial assets which are explained below

2.9 Business model assessment

The Company determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective.

The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios.

2.10 The Solely Payments of Principal and Interest (SPPI) test

As a second step of its classification process the Company assesses the contractual terms of financial assets to identify whether they meet the SPPI test.

"Principal" for the purpose of this test is defined as the fair value of the financial asset at initial recognition and may change over the life of the financial asset (for example, if there is repayment of principal or amortisation of the (premium/ discount).

In assessing whether the contractual cash flows are SPPI, The Company considers the contractual terms of the instrument. This includes assessing whether the financial assets contain a contractual term that could change the timing or amount of contractual Cash flows such that it would not meet this condition.

The Company classifies its financial liabilities as amortised costs unless it has designated liabilities at fair value through the profit and loss account or required to measure liabilities at fair value through profit or loss such as derivative liabilities.

2.11 Recognition of Financial instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when entity becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Initial Measurement of Financial Instruments:

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Subsequent Measurement:

Financial Assets

A financial asset is measured at amortised cost, if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.12 Financial Assets at Fair Value through Other Comprehensive (FVTOCI)

A financial asset is measured at FVTOCI, if it is held with a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows, that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

2.13 Financial Assets at fair value through Profit & Loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets at FVTPL include financial assets held for trading and financial assets designated upon initial recognition as at FVTPL. A financial asset that meets the amortised cost criteria or debt Instruments that meet the FVTOCI criteria may be designated as at FVTPL upon initial recognition if such designation eliminates significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency that would arise measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the Profits and losses on them on different bases.

2.14 Effective interest Rate (EIR) Method:

EIR is a method of calculating the amortised cost at allocating interest income or expenses over the relevant period.

The EIR for financial assets or financial liability is computed

a) At the rate that exactly counts estimated future cash receipts or payment through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset or to the amortised cost of a financial liability on initial recognition.

b) By considering contractual terms of the financial Instrument in estimating the cash flows. c) Including all fees received between parties to the contract that are integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and all other premium or discount.

2.15 Derecognise of Financial Assets.

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the rewards of ownership of the asset to another party,

On derecognition of a financial asset accounted under Ind AS 109 in its entity

a) for financial assets measured at amortised cost the gain or loss in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

b) for financial assets measured at a value through other comprehensive income the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves are reclassified to the statement of Profit and Loss unless the asset represents an equity investment in which case the cumulative fair value adjustments previously taken to reserves may be reclassified within Equity.

If the transferred asset is part of a larger financial asset and the part transferred qualifies for derecognition in its entirety, the previous carrying amount of the larger financial asset shall be allotted between the part that continues to be recognised and the part that is derecognised, on the basis of the relative fair values of those parts of the date of the transfer.

If the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards at ownership and continues to control the transferred asset it recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay.

If the Company transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, it continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a liability for the proceeds received.

2.16 Financial Liabilities & Equity Instruments

Classification of debt or equity financial liabilities and equity instruments, issued are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definition of financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity Instruments

An equity instrument is a contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Repurchase of the Company's own equity instrument is recognised and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognised in the statement of Profit and Loss on the purchase sale; ISSUE or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

Financial Liabilities

The Company classifies all financial liabilities as subsequently measured at amortised cost, except for financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender in substantially different terms; or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.17 Off-setting of financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the Balance Sheet when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.18 Earnings Per Share ("EPS")

Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividend, if any, attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless they have been lived at a later date. In computing the diluted earnings per share, only potential equity shares that are dilutive and that either reduce the earnings per share or increase the loss per share are included.

2.19 Significant accounting judgements estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the Ind AS requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities the accompanying disclosure and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of the reporting period. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an Ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting, estimates are recognized in the period in what the estimates are revised and future periods are affected. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods.

In particular information about significant areas of estimation uncertainty and critical judgements in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements included in the following notes

Equity instruments are not subject to impairment under Ind AS 109.

The Company recognises lifetime expected credit losses (ECL) when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and when the financial instrument is credit impaired. If the credit risk on the financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Company measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12 month ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition. 12 month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date.

When determining whether credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating expected credit losses, the Company considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, including on historical experience and forwardlooking information.
