- No Designated Person is allowed to trade in Securities forming part of the Restricted List.
- Any Securities for which Investment Manager may have UPSI while performing its normal duties.
- The above Grey and Restricted List shall be maintained by the Head of Research/respective business head/Compliance Officer by making necessary entry in the application software maintained by the Investment Manager.

Whenever any Securities forms part of the Grey List, trading in such Securities by any Employee of Research Department, Compliance Department and Whole Time Designated Directors of the Investment Manager shall be completely restricted and application for pre-clearance shall be disallowed

Whenever any Securities forms part of the Restricted List, trading in such Securities by any Designated Person shall be completely restricted and application for pre-clearance shall be blocked . Once the securities recommendation is disseminated to the Customer, the security will cease to be part of Grey List and will be moved to Restricted List.

Compliance Officer or the relevant Head of Department will include/ exclude the Securities from 'Restricted List' / 'Grey List' based on above in the software application maintained by the Investment Manager.

(i)

5. RESTRICTIONS

- i. The Compliance Officer shall have the full right to ask for any demat statement or any other document to verify that the procedures mentioned in this Policy are being followed.
- ii. All Securities transactions shall be effected exclusively on delivery basis and no transaction shall be of speculative nature or involve square up. Intra Day trading is not allowed by any Designated Person.

- iii. No Designated Person shall purchase any Securities on a “Carry Forward” basis or indulge in “Short Sale” of any Securities (including derivatives) i.e., Employees who effect any purchase transaction(s) shall ensure that they take delivery of the Securities purchased, before selling them.
- iv. An Employee may apply for shares and/or debentures and/or bonds and/or warrants in a preferential offer, in cases where such a preferential offer is being made by a company that belongs to the same industrial group as the company in which the Employee already has an investment, provided that such a preferential offer is made to all shareholders and/or debenture holders of such companies. Details of such applications made shall be intimated to the Compliance Officer.
- v. Any transaction of self-dealing by any Employee / Designated Directors, either directly or indirectly, whether alone or in concert with another person is prohibited. For this purpose, “self-dealing” means trading in Securities based on Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to which the Employee / Designated Directors has access by virtue of his office. Declaration to this effect may be taken from the Employee / Designated Directors while clearing the requests for investment.
- vi. No Employee / Designated Directors, directly or indirectly, shall pass on information to anybody to buy/sell Securities, which are being bought/sold by Registered Intermediary.
- vii. Any transaction of front running by any employee / Directors Designated Director directly or indirectly is strictly prohibited. For this purpose, ‘front running’ means any transaction of purchase/sale of a security carried by any Employee/ Designated Directors whether for self or for any other person including Immediate Relatives, knowing fully well that Investment Manager also intends to purchase/sell the same security for itself or on behalf of its clients. The Compliance Officer / may take a declaration in this regard from the Employee / Designated Directors. Such declaration may be included in the application form itself.
