INTRODUCTION

Credent Asset Management Services Private Limited (“Credent”) registered with Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”) bearing registration No INP000006101 as a Portfolio Manager.

At Credent, we believe that Investor Service is a vital element for sustained business growth and we want to ensure that our investors receive exemplary service from us. We also believe that prompt and efficient service is essential for retaining existing relationships and therefore investor satisfaction is paramount for us. Investor queries and complaints constitute an important voice of Investor, and this policy details grievance handling process through a structured grievance redressal framework. Grievance redressal is supported by a review mechanism, to minimise the recurrence of similar issues in future.

At Credent, we ensure that:

- a. Investors are treated fairly;
- b. Complaints raised by Investors are dealt with courtesy and in a timely manner;
- c. Investors are provided with information on how to raise their issues and complaints and escalate if they are not satisfied with the resolution or handling;
- d. A dedicated Customer Services Team is in place to handle customer queries and complaints. The process is supervised by a senior resource.

Credent has a dedicated “Investor Relations” desk that is responsible for timely and prompt communication with our investors, while having an open attitude towards service recovery, and providing alternate solutions to investors, thus ensuring healthy relationships with our investors.

Communication received from the Investors will be considered as a complaint to be resolved as per Grievance Redressal Policy on the basis of broad parameters as determined by the Investors Relation Team.

- ◆ Those lapses that result in further interactions and can be substantiated/ proved to have occurred due to undue delay/error of Credent and/or its service providers will, in the normal course be considered as a complaint/grievance.
- ◆ In case the lapse is due to misinformation or mistake on the part of the investor or any external agency not appointed by Credent, then such a lapse will not be treated as a complaint.

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL MECHANISM

Investors can raise their complaints or grievances through following modes:

- A) Through Investor Relations (IR) team.
- B) Through SEBI SCORES portal
- C) Through online resolution of disputes.

In case the investors are not satisfied with the response provided by Credent's IR Team, they have an option to register their complaints through SEBI's SCORES platform. However, Credent suggests to follow the grievance redressal method stated below before opting to register a compliant through the SCORES portal.

A) Through Credent Investor Relations Team (i.e. through CAMS)

Investor queries arise due to lack of understanding of the product and/ or a deficiency in service experienced by Investors. Deficiency in service may include lack of proper explanation, clarifications, understanding which escalates into shortfalls in the expected delivery standards, either due to inadequacy of facilities available or other factors. Investors can seek clarification to their query and are further entitled to make a complaint to Credent's Investor Relations Team through any of the modes mentioned below:

Contact details: The investors can send an email to the below mentioned email ID to register their queries / complaints.

investor is not satisfied with the resolution of the complaints raised directly through Credent Investor Relations Team or the SCORES platform of SEBI.

INTERNAL MACHINERY TO HANDLE INVESTOR COMPLAINTS

Investors would be provided with a prompt acknowledgement or a response on receipt of query / grievance by the Investor Relations team through an email on the registered email ID of the investors.

Queries/Complaints are investigated within the stipulated timelines at the different levels of escalation as maintained by Credent.

- ◆ Resolution of queries: We aim to acknowledge and respond to queries in three working days and
- ◆ Resolution of Grievances: We aim to resolve any complaints within seven working days.

Certain types of queries/complaints, involving fraud, legal inputs, coordination with third parties, needing more time for investigation, are acknowledged accordingly and the turnaround time will be communicated to the investor, as the case may be. The prompt communication of Credent's stand on any issue is important and is done clearly in an investor-friendly manner.

ESCALATION MATRIX

Any delay in resolution of query above 3 working days and grievance above 7 working days to be escalated to the Senior Management for appropriate action, along with reasons for such delays.

POLICY REVIEW

This Policy shall be reviewed and amended whenever there are any regulatory amendments or on an annual basis, whichever is earlier, with the approval of the Board of Directors.
