VIGIL MECHANISM AND WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY OF CREDENT GLOBAL FINANCE LIMITED

1. INTRODUCTION:

Credent Global Finance Limited and its subsidiaries (collectively, “Credent Group”) are committed to conducting business with integrity, and in full accordance with all applicable laws and regulations. Credent Group's regarding business ethics are contained in the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code of Conduct”).

The possibility of unethical behavior / frauds / malpractices / wrongful acts / employee misconduct / illegal acts etc. by individuals in the organization's operations can never be ruled out, and ignorance of this possibility demonstrates poor corporate governance with potentially disastrous consequences. Such acts across any level of the organizational hierarchy are more likely to come to the attention of top management only when a proper mechanism exists for persons, without fear, to report concerns directly and confidentially.

However, fear of retaliation and ignorance of where to report unethical behaviour / frauds / malpractices / wrongful acts / illegal acts etc. usually discourage a potential whistleblower from reporting the same. Therefore, it is top management responsibility to create such comfortable environment & confidence to all the persons dealing with the company to fearlessly report any unethical behaviour / frauds / malpractices / wrongful acts to the designated authority, which is the first step towards good, effective & efficient corporate governance.

With a view to create such environment, the management has taken initiative for the implementation of Whistleblower Policy (the “Policy”).

Additionally, Section 177(9) of the Companies Act, 2013 mandates the following classes of companies to constitute a Vigil Mechanism :-

- A. Every listed company;
- B. Every other company which accepts deposits from the public;
- C. Every company which has borrowed money from banks and public financial institutions in excess of Rs.50 crores.

Regulation 4(2)(d)(iv) of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“Listing Regulations”) mandates that the listed entity shall devise an effective Vigil Mechanism / Whistle Blower Policy enabling stakeholders, including individual employees and their representative bodies, to freely communicate their concerns about illegal or unethical practices.

Regulation 22(1) of the Listing Regulations mandates that listed entities formulate a Vigil Mechanism/ Whistle Blower Policy for directors and employees to report genuine concerns.

2. APPLICABILITY

This Policy applies to all the directors and employees of CREDENT GLOBAL FINANCE LIMITED, working across the Company project locations, branches, customers, stakeholders, and/or third-party intermediaries such as agents and consultants to use this Policy and procedure to report, submit confidential and / or anonymous complaints.

3. SCOPE AND EXCLUSIONS
