1. Introduction

This Insider Trading Policy (“Policy”) has been adopted by Credent Asset Management Services Private Limited (“Company”) to regulate, monitor, and report trading by its Designated Persons and to ensure compliance with applicable insider trading laws. The Company is committed to maintaining the highest standards of transparency, integrity, and fairness in securities transactions.

This Policy shall apply to all Directors, Employees, Designated Persons, and Connected Persons of the Company.

2. Objective

The objective of this Policy is to:

- Prevent misuse of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI).
- Prohibit insider trading in securities.
- Establish internal controls for handling confidential information.
- Ensure compliance with applicable regulatory requirements.

3. Definitions

Insider: Any person who is a connected person or in possession of or having access to UPSI.

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI): Any information relating to a company or its securities that is not generally available and which, upon becoming generally available, is likely to materially affect the price of the securities.

Designated Persons: Employees and other persons identified by the Company based on their role and function and access to UPSI.

4. Prohibition on Insider Trading

No Insider shall:

- Trade in securities while in possession of UPSI.
- Communicate, provide, or allow access to UPSI to any unauthorized person.

- Recommend or induce any person to trade in securities while in possession of UPSI.

Trading while in possession of UPSI is strictly prohibited, irrespective of whether the trade results in profit or loss.

5. Handling of UPSI

UPSI shall be handled strictly on a need-to-know basis. Access to UPSI shall be restricted to authorized personnel only. Adequate safeguards, including password protection, access controls, and data confidentiality measures, shall be implemented to prevent leakage or misuse of sensitive information.

The Company shall maintain a structured digital database containing details of persons with whom UPSI is shared, in accordance with regulatory requirements.

6. Trading Window Mechanism

The Company shall specify a Trading Window during which Designated Persons may trade in securities, subject to compliance with this Policy.

The Trading Window shall be closed when UPSI is available and shall reopen only after such information becomes generally available. Designated Persons shall not trade during the closure period.

7. Pre-Clearance of Trades

Designated Persons intending to trade beyond the prescribed threshold shall obtain prior approval from the Compliance Officer.

The Compliance Officer shall grant pre-clearance only after ensuring that the applicant is not in possession of UPSI. Approved trades must be executed within the stipulated time period, failing which fresh approval shall be obtained.

8. Disclosure Requirements

Designated Persons shall make disclosures regarding:

- Initial holdings in securities upon becoming a Designated Person.
- Continual disclosures upon crossing prescribed trading thresholds.
- Annual disclosure of holdings, as required.

All disclosures shall be made to the Compliance Officer within the timelines prescribed under applicable regulations.

9. Contra Trade Restrictions

Designated Persons shall not enter into contra trades (i.e., opposite transactions) within a period of six months from the date of the initial transaction, unless permitted by the Compliance Officer for valid reasons.

10. Role of Compliance Officer

The Compliance Officer shall:

- Monitor adherence to this Policy.
- Approve or reject pre-clearance applications.
- Maintain records of disclosures and approvals.
- Report violations to senior management and regulatory authorities, if required.
- Conduct periodic awareness and training sessions.

11. Internal Controls

The Company shall implement internal controls to ensure:

- Identification of UPSI and its proper classification.
- Restriction of access to UPSI.
- Periodic review of Designated Persons list.
- Monitoring of trades and suspicious activities.

12. Violations and Penalties

Any violation of this Policy shall invite disciplinary action, including wage freeze, suspension, recovery of profits, termination of employment, or other appropriate action. Regulatory penalties may also be imposed under applicable laws.

13. Review of Policy

This Policy shall be reviewed periodically to ensure alignment with regulatory amendments and business operations. Any modification shall be approved by the Board of Directors.
